

FOUND NOT GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Driver of Wagon Was Charged With Causing Woman's Death—Other Cases in Court

Morris Shapiro, a hawker and peddler, who ran into and knocked down Ellen Keenan, an elderly woman, at Tower's corner on the morning of July 4, and subsequently was placed under arrest on a charge of manslaughter, was found not guilty and discharged by Judge John J. Pickman in police court this morning.

Judge Frederic A. Fisher who presided over the inquest held in the court of second sessions exonerated Shapiro of blame, stating that there was no criminal negligence on the part of Shapiro and that the death of Mrs. Keenan was due to an accident.

Discharged on a Technicality
Harry Levy who conducts a second hand clothing store in Barton street was brought before the court several days ago on a complaint charging him with keeping a second hand store without having a license. He admitted that he had no license, but entered a plea of not guilty and requested a continuance which was granted. Clerk John J. Flaherty of the license commission produced records which proved that the defendant had no license.

The court decided that the city ordinance which was passed in 1904 provided for the licensing of second-hand clothing dealers, but did not stipulate any penalty in the event of failure to secure a license. Judge Pickman stated that the proper thing to do was to have a new ordinance passed or have the present ordinance amended in order to agree with the statute passed by the legislature in 1902.

Assaulted Child
Zisse Gmelas was charged with assault and battery on Manuel Gonzalez, aged three years. Owing to the fact that the defendant is a Greek and the father of the boy is a Portuguese, it was necessary to use two interpreters. At the conclusion of the case Gmelas was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $4.

Gmelas has a small store at the corner of Central and Union streets and according to his testimony he has been bothered by boys who throw stones in the store and at the windows. Last Friday morning some person threw a stone at one of the windows in the store and broke it. He rushed out to get the boy and the little fellow started to run away and fell to the sidewalk. He said when he saw the boy fall he picked him up.

Archie Tangway, a teamster for Pratt & Farrest, stated that when he was passing through the street he saw the defendant run out of the store and strike the boy, the latter falling to the street and sustaining a contusion on the forehead.

Blind Man Arrested
Harry Davis, a blind man who resides in Beverly, was arrested for drunkenness. He pleaded to be allowed to return to his home city but the court decided to send him to the state farm.

Drunken Offenders
Philippe Jallier, who was under a suspended sentence of five months in jail, was arrested yesterday and when he appeared in court this morning the suspension was revoked.

Wilfred Forth denied that he was guilty of drunkenness, but according to the testimony of the arresting officer the defendant was fighting drunk on Lakeview avenue shortly before 11 o'clock last night. A fine of $2 was imposed.

Edward Brady was sentenced to five months in jail and appealed.

Richard J. Clark, Romeo Portell and John Carey were fined $5 each. There were seven first offenders, who were fined $2 each and two simple drinks were released.

BECKER IS SILENT IN THE TOMBS

Great Graft Game in New York Police Department is Being Revealed

NEW YORK, July 31.—Every trail and lead is to be followed persistently, no matter where it ends, by Dist. Atty. Whitman, to learn to whom it is alleged, $2,400,000 graft money was finally distributed. "Bald Jack" Rose, whose confession put Police Lieutenant Becker behind the bars for the alleged murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, has told the public prosecutor that this large sum of money was obtained by police blackmail from gambling and disorderly houses and that Becker told him the money went to four police officials.

The public prosecutor has arranged to keep the grand jury in session all summer to investigate the relations between the gamblers and the police, which is in the opinion of Whitman, a matter of more public importance than the Rosenthal case.

District Attorney Whitman proposes to break up the relations, said to exist between the gamblers and the police, and he has indicated that he will do so if he has to protect every man involved in the murder of Rosenthal, except those who fired the shots.

The information obtained from Jack Rose, who says he was Becker's collector from gambling houses, will be proved, says the district attorney.

All records of arrests of gamblers will be scrutinized to obtain evidence in the case and Whitman is in possession of a list of names of big and little gamblers given him by Rose, who, in his accusations against Becker, said that when the police lieutenant took charge of the "strong arm" squad he asked for the names of gamblers who could be made to give up for police protection.

Rose says that Becker took the list and determined how much money each gambler was to be assessed for the privilege of doing business unmolested. Some gamblers, Rose said, paid as high as $500 a month, while the little fellows got off with anywhere from $50 to $100 a month.

Meanwhile Becker, a prisoner in the Tombs, is saying nothing and there is no confirmation of the report that his defense will be that the three gamblers, Rose, Vallon and Webster, fired the shot going against them, got together and framed the story that would involve Becker.

"Big Jack" Zelig, to whom Rose says

he sent word to get the men to slay Rosenthal, will appear when wanted. His counsel has told the public prosecutor that Zelig would tell everything he knew. "Big Jack" is now out on $10,000 bail for carrying concealed weapons.

The alleged actual assassins of Rosenthal, Harry Horowitz, or "Big Blood," "Lefty Louie," and "Whitey Lewis," are still at large. "Dago Frank" Gershtel is in custody.

With regard to the talk of immunity or lighter treatment for Becker in the event of his disclosing the operation of the "system," District Attorney Whitman said today:

"If it could be proved that Becker instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal, a crime of such serious nature committed by a police official could not be condoned for any exposure of graft that he might be able to produce. However, it must be presumed that he is innocent until he is proved guilty."

The district attorney has assurances of other details of the vast blackmailing system from the list of Rose and he will hold another conference with the gambler this afternoon. Rose has assured him that he can implicate the much talked of men higher up.

Rose's estimate of the annual graft of $2,400,000 is regarded as conservative rather than excessive by the district attorney. He figures that if "Bridgie" Webster's little hole in the wall paid $125 a month for protection the greater establishments must have paid thousands and, taking the total number in the city, the figures become staggering.

Cornelius F. Cahalane, police inspector in charge of the first inspection district, took occasion today vehemently to deny that he was a party to any understanding between the police and gamblers, particularly in his district.

Speaking of Rose and Vallon, Cahalane said:

"They have very good reason to remember me. I drove Rose out of my district. When he was located in Fourth street, Vallon I raided five times inside of 11 months. He would move every time he was raided. The raids I made took place at four dif-

MORE BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED

Purchasing Agent Buys Four Cars of Coal

The report of the commissioner of finance for the month of June was received from the printer yesterday and copies, of same, limited in number, are on distribution at the office of the city auditor.

The report shows that the city's distance from the debt limit, June 30, one month ago, was $192,039.15.

The tax account shows that there was outstanding, January 1, 1912, $741,752.90; paid to June 30, $295,205.76; balance due July 1, $446,547.14. The cash balance in the general treasury June 30, $177,457.55.

More Building Permits
Persons receiving building permits at the office of the inspector of buildings, since the last were published, include: Archie A. Lavole for a house in A street. The building will be 25 by 30 feet, with all 6 by 15 feet, two stories. The estimated cost is $3500.

The Lowell Realty Co., will build a two-story house at 25 Hampshire street. The estimated cost is $1700.

The John P. Squire Co., of Cambridge, owns a building in Rock street in the rear of D. Lovejoy & Sons, and complaints have been made concerning the building because of its dilapidated condition. Commissioner Cummings will notify the owners of the building to make the necessary repairs.

Edson Cemetery Appropriation
Commissioner Cummings says that the appropriation of $5000 for the Edson cemetery will be made up in receipts within a week or two.

Purchase of Coal
Purchasing Agent Pose has purchased four cars of coal for the Cook well; two cars from E. A. Wilson Co. and two from D. T. Sullivan. Mr. Pose has received a quotation for 355 tons of coal for the fire department.

Recent localities. That's about all I care to say, except to mention that the first inspection district is 50 per cent cleaner now than it was when I took command, a short time ago, and if it is not I will resign.

The police department announced today that it was ready for the most searching investigation. While the heads of the department admitted that in the ramifications of the organization unworthy individuals might be discovered, they declared that never before in its history had the department been better able to stand a thorough probing. Although the gamblers who did the actual shooting of Rosenthal are still at large one more of those directly or indirectly involved in the crime came within the reach of the authorities today. He is Samuel Schep, an occupant of the gray car in which the murderers rode. Bernard H. Sandler, counsel for Schep, appeared at the district attorney's office today and said that his client was willing to surrender provided he be accorded the treatment given on Rose, Vallon and Webster. He was told that Schep would be used as a witness if he could show that he was not an accessory to the shooting, and it is probable that Schep will surrender by tomorrow.

Lieut. Becker maintains his silence in the Tombs receiving visitors, except his wife and counsel.

LAST NIGHT'S RAIN CAUSED DAMAGE

Heavy Loss at Merrimack Clothing Co.

LOWELL AUTO SHOW ROOMS FLOODED

None of the Machines Were Damaged

A terrific rainstorm, accompanied by thunder, lightning, hail and wind, broke over Lowell last night and although it lasted but about half an hour it did considerable damage. Streets were gutted, cellars were flooded and many of the cars of the local division of the Day Street Railway Co. were put out of business and it was late in the night before the cars were running on schedule time.

Considerable damage was done to the Merrimack Clothing store as a result of the clogging of a drain pipe on the roof of the building.

Centerville and Belvidere received the brunt of the storm and many of the streets in those sections of the city, especially where there were hills, were badly gutted and considerable filling in and resurfacing will have to be done by the street department before they are returned to their former condition.

Considerable damage was also done by the storm in the suburban towns. Although there was a downpour of rain in the morning it cleared up before noon and looked as though the storm was over, but shortly after six o'clock at night the dark clouds began to move over the city and at 6:30 o'clock it was almost as dark as midnight, making it necessary to turn on the lights in the streets, stores and houses throughout the city.

At seven o'clock a strong wind started to blow, the thunder roared, the lightning flashed and the rain started to descend in torrents. Shortly afterwards the wind died down but the rain continued. The downpour continued for almost half an hour and did more damage for such a space of time than any storm that has occurred in this city for years.

In Centerville and Belvidere the rain rushed down the hills transforming the streets into miniature rivers and also washing off the top dressings of macadam and depositing the dirt at the foot of the hills, impeding electric car traffic.

On the suburban lines of the street railway company the principal trouble was due to the accumulation of sand on the rails and washouts, but many of the motors in the cars were burned out and other cars had to be sent out on the various lines to tow the crippled ones back to the power house.

Commissioner George H. Brown had men out late last night and early this morning removing the sand from many of the streets and refilling the washouts in the streets.

The residence of William Nolin on Princeton hill in Collinsville was struck by lightning during the height of the storm and considerable damage was done. The belt entered the house through the chimney, sending the bricks flying in all directions. It tore through the whole interior, knocking the plastering from the walls and starting a small fire which was quickly overcome. Mrs. Nolin was stunned by the crash, but was given prompt attention and recovered in a few hours, although she was in a very nervous condition. The house is only two years old and will require extensive repairs.

Frederic C. Church held the insurance on the house.

The water in the sewer in the vicinity of the Lowell Automobile garage in Appleton street backed up and flooded the two show rooms of the garage, but none of the machines in the place was damaged.

The clogging of a drain pipe on the roof of the Associated Building caused the flooding of the floor of Associated hall and considerable damage to the contents of the store of the Merrimack Clothing Co. The piling up of the pipe caused the water to flow over into the light shaft and into the store on the ground floor.

William E. Ready, the well known tonsorial artist, who occupies rooms on the second floor, was the first person to discover the terrific fall of water through the light shaft.

The members of the protective company in Warren street were called and they laid rubber blankets over the clothing and later covered up the drain which allowed the water to run off.

The damage by water to the stock of the Merrimack Clothing Co. will amount to several thousand dollars, but incidentally it means that good suits of clothes and other articles, which were only slightly damaged by the water, will be sold at a sacrifice.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL TO BORROW $97,000

$75,000 for Extension of Water Service

MONEY VOTED FOR COMFORT STATION

Alderman Barrett Talks on Water System

The municipal council, at a meeting held this afternoon, voted to borrow $97,000 for the improvement and extension of the water service and $22,000 for a comfort or convenience station.

The meeting was called at 2:20 o'clock.

The order tomorrow $22,000 for a comfort station in Paige street, near Bridge street, was read by the mayor after having remained the required time in the city clerk's office.

Alderman Barrett wanted to know what department would have control of the comfort station. He thought that question ought to be decided before the order is adopted and he moved that the commissioner of public safety be given charge of the construction of the station in conjunction with the board of health.

The mayor then read an order to borrow $75,000 to improve and extend the water service in Lowell. This order, too, had remained in the city clerk's office for the required time, ten days.

Alderman Barrett said that the responsibility of about $50,000 of the $75,000 rests with him because, he said, he believes in the construction of larger and better mains. "There's about $25,000 of it for which he does not feel absolutely responsible because it will be used to complete work begun before he took office as commissioner."

He said it was only last week a structure presented itself that showed how necessary is an improvement in the water system. "In part," he said, "I am endeavoring to remedy that situation this year. It is my intention to provide a dual system, but it would be impossible for me to do it this year. It will be my first act next year, however, if I am still in charge of the water department, to build the dual system and I will ask money for that purpose."

What is meant by a dual system is an additional main from the reservoir to the downtown districts, having two mains instead of one.

"It does not appear to the ordinary observer at this time," said Mr. Barrett, "that we would ever have to do our present system of well supply but there is a possibility that our wells may fail us in years to come."

"In that event we would have to filter the water from the Merrimack river or get our supply from the Metropolitan Water Co. at Clinton."

We are just about to connect new wells, however, about 500 in all, and do not believe that our system of wells will ever fail us, but in all events, we stand in need of the improvements that I recommend. Our water system should be improved year by year, for a city's water service is a precious thing."

The order was adopted unanimously. At a meeting of the council held yesterday afternoon, Alderman Barrett gave notice of reconsideration at the next meeting of the vote sustaining City Treasurer Stiles, but because of the absence of Ald. Cummings this afternoon, Mr. Cummings being the maker of the motion requesting Mr. Stiles' resignation, Alderman Barrett asked permission of the council to allow the matter to go over to the next meeting and it was so agreed. It was expected that the matter to reconsider will not come to anything more than to give opportunity for speech-making.

BOLD BURGLARY IN BELVIDERE

House of Tyler A. Stevens Entered and Robbed of Silverware and Other Valuables

It is reported that the house of Tyler A. Stevens on Park street was entered by burglars between Friday night and Monday morning and that a large quantity of solid silver was carried off. The house has been closed up for some time, as part of the family is in Europe, and Mr. Stevens himself is staying temporarily in the country. It appears from what can be learned that the burglars were very discriminating in what they should take. They gathered the silverware into one room, and there separated the solid silver from the plate, and took it with them. It is supposed, wrapped up in a sheet taken from one of the beds.

They reached the safe, but whether they tried to open it, is not determined. If they did so, they did not succeed. It is not known whether the robbery was committed during the night or in the daytime. It is surmised that the burglars found an entrance in the night and remained until daylight, so that the officers on the beat might not notice the light in the house, knowing that the family was absent.

The police are looking up the matter, but as yet no clue to the robbers has been secured. The police officers have been on guard at the house since the burglary was discovered. The police were of the opinion at first that the robbery was the work of boys, but on closer examination it was evident that boys could not make such a nice discrimination between solid silver and plate.

The gold head was twisted off a valuable chain and carried off. Various other articles were reported to have been taken.

WRECK DELAYS LOWELL TRAINS

Freight Train Left Rails at Bridgewater, N. H.

A freight wreck at Bridgewater, N. H., that occurred early this morning was responsible for the delays in the arrival in Lowell of all the trains coming from the north that run over the White Mountains division. The wreck, as near as could be learned, occurred about 3 o'clock this morning, and though the wreck crew was sent to the scene as soon as possible, it was many hours before the wreckage was straightened out.

Bridgewater, where the wreck took place, is a small town outside of Plymouth, N. H., and it was rather difficult to receive information as to how the accident happened.

The Canadian Pacific train, which is due to arrive at the Lowell depot at 6:45 p. m., was not in at noon. As many Lowell people were expected to be on the train, there was considerable uneasiness at the depot on the part of those who were there waiting.

The train due at the depot at 11:05 was unable to continue on its way, having been stalled just above the wreck, and hence an extra train was sent. The latter train was "built" at Concord, N. H., and consisted of four coaches and the engine. This train ran under the 11:05 numbers and arrived at the depot in Lowell at 11:30.

Many Lowell people took the train for Boston, and it was learned that the "regular" will run through to its destination as soon as the wreck is cleared up. The fact of placing the train back into position and repairing the rails.

The travelling on the steam railroad is very heavy, owing to the fact that many people are returning from their vacations. The New York train which arrived in Lowell from Boston at 11:25, was well filled up when it reached here this morning and many boarded it at the Middlesex street station. The latter train is one of the best on the road and has proven very profitable for the company as well as a great accommodation to the travelers.

The baggage is very heavy, and the men at the depot were kept on the go all day.

Grand Improvement

David Row, foreman of the plumbing crew, of the Boston and Maine railroad was today engaged with his crew of assistants in placing a double pipe rail on the stairs leading from Chelmsford street to the depot. The rail will serve as a handrail and is a great improvement, being especially beneficial to older people who have occasion to go to the depot through that entrance.

JUDGE DILLON TO STATE REASON FOR WITHDRAWAL FROM CAMPAIGN

COLUMBUS, O., July 31.—The Republican state central committee will meet this afternoon to act on the resignation of Judge Dillon as the nominee for governor. It is expected that the central committee will recess until some later date before a sub-nominee is selected.

In his formal resignation to the committee, Judge Dillon is expected to state the reason for his withdrawal from the campaign.

Should the Taft supporters succeed in naming another nominee it is understood that they will expect him to take the stump for the president in this state fall.

The Roosevelt supporters will attempt to place whoever is nominated on the new third party ticket and declare for the former president. Following the meeting of the central committee, Mr. Laylin and other supporters of the president will leave for Washington, where they will discuss the Ohio situation with the president.

Mr. Laylin is one of the members of the notification committee, which will notify the president tomorrow of his nomination.

IMPOSING SERVICE HELD

The Funeral of the Late Thomas Collins

After an imposing service at his home, 124 Myrtle street, the remains of the late Thos. Collins, former superintendent of the weaving, finishing and winding departments of the Bigelow Carpet Co., were tenderly consigned to their last resting place in the Edson cemetery this afternoon. The funeral, which was very largely attended by relatives and sorrowing friends of the deceased, took place at his home at 12 o'clock, the service being conducted by Rev. J. T. Carlson, pastor of the Centralville Methodist church.

Out of respect for the memory of the deceased, the plant of the Bigelow Carpet Co. in Market street was closed from 11:30 o'clock until 2 o'clock, and many of the employees were in attendance at the funeral, paying a last tribute to one whom they loved and respected. At the funeral were also delegations from Passaconaway tribe of Red Men, Pilgrim encampment, I. O. O. F., Grand Union lodge, I. O. O. F., Evening Star lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, Lowell Cooperative association and the Bigelow Carpet Co., the latter being represented by its treasurer, Mr. Fairbanks.

The singing at the home was rendered by a mixed quartet composed of the following: Mrs. Evelyn Spaulding, contralto; Mrs. Winifred Simonds, soprano; Osmond Long, tenor, and Chas. H. Howard, basso. The bearers were Messrs. Stewart Gulliver, Frank Bramhall, J. W. Peabody, W. D. Brown, James Nix.

There was a profusion of rich flowers, which showed the esteem in which the deceased was held. At the close of the service the cortege wound its way to the Edson cemetery, where burial took place in the family lot. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. Ry-lah Firth, J. A. Weinbeck, undertaker.

27 TEACHERS ELECTED BY THE SCHOOL BOARD

Two New Teachers for the High School—$3000 Voted for Industrial School

The school board held its regular June meeting last night and like the June meeting of last year's committee it was not called until nearly 11 o'clock. While the committee was in session together last night it managed to dispose of a big raft of business and the midnight bells were tolling when the last items of business were being acted upon.

The committee elected 27 permanent substitute teachers out of a total of 50 who passed the recent examination, at a salary of $250 a year each.

Miss Mary Joyce was elected a teacher of elocution and Miss Margaret A. Trague a teacher of physical culture in the high school. Miss Westcott has been filling both these positions, but it was decided that there was too much work for one teacher.

The board voted to set aside the sum of $3000 for industrial school equipment.

Dr. William M. Collins was elected medical director at the high school to succeed Dr. Ferdie Colburn.

It was 10:45 o'clock when President Farrington called to order. The secretary read the records of the previous meeting and the same were accepted.

A certificate of the first grade was voted to Patrick J. Donohue, Holy Cross 1912, and a certificate of the second grade to Miss Hope Hearn, Radcliffe 1912.

Dr. Bagley, of the committee on teachers, presented the report recommending the election to the high school of Miss Joyce as teacher of elocution, and Miss Trague as teacher of physical culture. Mr. Rogers dissenting. Mr. Rogers stated that Miss Westcott failed of re-election at the last meeting, the reason being that she was not a resident of Lowell. At the time of her election she was not, but he had hoped that she had overcome that disability by residing here since. She had faithfully performed the duties of her position, and he objected to the payment of two salaries of $250 each. He said he was opposed to the creation of two offices where only one existed.

Dr. Bagley said he had nothing to say against Miss Westcott, but he said two teachers were needed. He said that Principal Irish had told him that to teach elocution and physical culture was too much for one teacher. Dr. Bagley said that Miss Joyce and Miss Trague were both well qualified.

Committee member McKenzie said that he too had gone over the matter with Principal Irish of the high school and had gathered facts and figures. "Pupils carrying less than four studies," said Mr. McKenzie, "have elocution for 15 minutes every other week, so infrequently that the teacher must often send for some of the pupils who have completely forgotten about the exercise. The classes are of such size that the individual pupil gets three minutes of actual practice in speaking. As there are 46 weeks in the year and elocution courses every three weeks, pupils in the whole year 60 minutes of actual practice of four hours during his course."

"At present the work is done by a teacher who is overburdened with other duties, having two battalions of pupils to prepare for the annual drill, to say nothing of the special work done with the first year pupils. So you see both departments suffer because of the lack of instruction. And the result is that an important factor in the education of the pupils is largely neglected because, under the present arrangement it cannot receive the attention it deserves."

The advantage of having a separate teacher of elocution is that the pupils could be given instructions at least once a week. The school debating society could be renewed and made a helpful factor in this work. In view of these facts therefore, I hope the board will relieve this condition by electing a teacher who is experienced and efficient in this work."

"No man is truly educated who cannot stand on his feet and express himself clearly and easily. There are times in every one's life when the ability to make himself heard means a great deal and when one has not that ability he feels the need of it badly. No man ever regretted that he possessed the ability, and certainly many a man regretted that he did not possess it. No man can be a leader without it, for a leader must have the power of expressing himself. The power of speech must be the gifts of the lawyer and the preacher if they are to be successful leaders in their chosen professions, and we know that many a lawyer and many a preacher would meet with more success in life if they could tell fluently and gracefully before audiences. We ought not to limit the opportunity of the boy or girl for graceful speech and I sincerely hope that the motion will prevail."

Dr. O'Connor said he had nothing but words of praise for Miss Westcott and he feared that she was overworked. "It is generally conceded," he said, "that elocution is an important study and it requires more attention than it is receiving at the present time. I was the first to suggest the employment of a second teacher. I believed a taxpayer I am more than willing to pay my share of whatever additional expense is necessary to improve our schools."

The motion was carried, Mr. Rogers voting against.

Manual Training Teacher
John Burns was elected teacher of manual training in place of Arthur W. Trubey. Mr. Trubey also failed of reelection at the June meeting, and he has since sent in his resignation, which was accepted at last night's meeting.

Dr. Wm. M. Collins was elected medical director at the high school to succeed Dr. Ferdie Colburn.

It was 10:45 o'clock when President Farrington called to order. The secretary read the records of the previous meeting and the same were accepted.

A certificate of the first grade was voted to Patrick J. Donohue, Holy Cross 1912, and a certificate of the second grade to Miss Hope Hearn, Radcliffe 1912.

One of the Largest Elm Trees in the City Will Make Fifty Cords of Wood

LARGE ELM TREE THAT WAS CUT DOWN

One of the largest, if not the very largest, elm tree in Lowell was felled in Baldwin street a day or two ago. The tree was struck by lightning about three years ago and since then it has been considered a menace to public safety. Its limbs, as large as ordinary trees, were breaking away and imperiled the lives of passersby. The tree was 125 feet high and was eight feet at the butt. The tree was felled under the direction of C. Connor, of 35 East Merrimack street. Mr. Connor is a forester and he allows that the tree will make 50 cords of wood. "I have felled trees in all parts of Massachusetts," said Mr. Connor, "and the Baldwin street tree is one of the largest elms I ever felled." The tree was standing at the butt of the tree as shown in the picture is a six-footer.

that this will be the most economical system every adopted by the city. I do not believe in the training of our teachers in out-of-town places."

On the adoption of the report, Mr. Rogers also voted no.

Supt. Whitcomb read the letter of resignation of Arthur W. Trubey, teacher of manual training in the high school, and it was accepted.

The superintendent read a letter from the advisory committee of the industrial school, recommending the securing of the old ledge at the corner of Fletcher and Tower streets, as a site for an industrial school building to be erected in the future. The recommendation was referred to the committee on industrial school.

The superintendent was given permission to enter state blackboards for the Charles street schoolhouse.

On the question of necessary sanitary provision in a school building—on which the lands and buildings department reports that it has no money—Dr. O'Connor said if it would not be the expenditure of money by the school department, he should vote against it. He said the school department is the tenant and the lands and buildings department the owner, and it is up to the lands and buildings department to do the repairing. "The money for other things, but when it comes to doing anything for the school department, the lands and buildings department is broke."

It was finally referred to the committee on industrial school.

Mr. Rogers, under the head of new business, brought up the matter of Mr. Elmer T. Brennan, one of the three high school teachers who failed of reelection at the June meeting. He argued that Mr. Brennan is not a non-resident, as was alleged in the case of the other two teachers; and that on inquiry, he has not found that Mr. Brennan is not an efficient teacher. He, therefore, moved the election of Mr. Brennan. The motion was lost for lack of a second.

Field Day Program
Mr. Rogers then referred to the matter of the high school field day program, and called attention to the presence of the two young men, Loring L. Kew and Leonard Darnstoft, who had been waiting since 5 o'clock to be heard.

Dr. Bagley said that the head master of the high school was not present, as requested.

Mr. Rogers thought the two young men could be heard, and there being no objection, Mr. Kew stated the position of his committee.

He explained that on or about March 24, the commissioned officers of the high school regiment elected two of the senior officers and one junior, according to the custom followed in preceding years. The three were to go ahead with the program, and they started in on the work of soliciting "pads."

After they had secured between $50 and $100 worth of advertising, they were informed that the chairman of the high school committee, Dr. O'Connor, had ordered the work to cease. They ceased work for a time, and were later informed that the school board had decided that they might go ahead, but that they were to receive no remuneration, unless granted by the board later. They went ahead and finished the work, and reported to Principal Irish, as directed.

Mr. Kew then read his itemized list of receipts and expenditures, and he estimated the amount of work done by the three members of the committee. There were approximately 116 hours of work apiece, and the net proceeds is $1251, now held by Principal Irish.

Dr. Bagley asked whether there was a record of the day the young men began work. Mr. Kew would not be positive whether it was the first or second Friday of March, and he said the estimate of work was not made from a strict record of actual time, but that they had all gone over it carefully in making a rough estimate, in the principal's office.

Mr. Rogers said that this matter has been pending for two months, and is a relatively small matter in dollars and cents. When the money is divided into thirds, it will amount to a fraction over 12 cents an hour, for the work done. The young men were elected upon the theory that the usual custom would be followed, and if there had been a loss, they would have had to make good out of their own pockets. He moved that the young men receive the money. Mr. McKenzie seconded. Dr. O'Connor opposed, and said he had been told by merchants of Lowell that they understood that the proceeds of the athletic season were to go to the athletic association. He did not, however, understand that the young men told the advertisers that this was the case. He objected to the young men receiving money, because he did not think the Lowell high school was the place to promote graft.

Mr. Farrington approved of giving a part of the money, if it had been contributed to the athletic association, after remunerating the young men for their work; but as it was so small, he would vote to give it to the young men.

Dr. O'Connor said he was astonished at the report, as he had been led to suppose that the sums from year to year ran up into the hundreds. He said that when he asked Mr. Irish how much was made in previous years, he had been given a different answer at each interview.

The motion was carried, Drs. Bagley and O'Connor voting no.

Dr. Bagley then gave notice of his recommendation at the next meeting of a course in Irish history in the high school.

Dr. Bagley moved that the recommendation of the committee on teachers, recommending the election to the high school of Miss Joyce as teacher of elocution, and Miss Trague as teacher of physical culture, be accepted.

On the question of necessary sanitary provision in a school building—on which the lands and buildings department reports that it has no money—Dr. O'Connor said if it would not be the expenditure of money by the school department, he should vote against it. He said the school department is the tenant and the lands and buildings department the owner, and it is up to the lands and buildings department to do the repairing. "The money for other things, but when it comes to doing anything for the school

At the meeting of the municipal council, held yesterday afternoon, a report of which appears elsewhere, ex-commendation of the grammar masters, that Dr. Kenigott's book be placed in the schools, be stricken from the list, and that the book be not accepted either as a reference book or as a text book.

Mr. Farrington said he intended to vote against its acceptance, but he thought action could properly be taken upon that book, with the others recommended. Dr. Bagley then withdrew his motion.

Industrial School
Mr. McKenzie, chairman of the committee on industrial school, moved that the sum of $5000 be laid aside for the equipment of the industrial school; the money to be spent under the jurisdiction of the principal and the committee on supplies.

Mr. Rogers' amendment, to provide that the state authorities in the industrial school have a voice in the matter, inasmuch as they will not accept the school unless it is up to their requirements, was lost for want of a second, and the original motion prevailed by a unanimous vote.

A request from a representative of the Lowell guild, to establish a branch milk station in the Cheever street school building, was presented by Chairman Farrington. Mr. Watelle had referred the request to the board, as he is a tenant of the school by leave of the school board.

Mr. McKenzie asked whether Mr. Watelle pays rent, and was informed by Supt. Whitcomb that he is to pay $5 a month. The request for the use of the school for a milk station was granted.

The board voted to transfer Miss Mary E. Whelley from the Morrill street school to the Cabot street school as principal, and to transfer Miss Ida J. Clarke, principal of the Cabot street school, to the Morrill school.

Adjourned to Monday night at nine o'clock.

Mr. Rogers Dissents
Mr. Rogers dissented from the report on account of the large number of permanent substitute teachers elected in on salary. He said that under the present method, instead of getting the experience outside of Lowell, the young teachers get it in the Lowell schools, at a cost of over $2000 to the city.

Twenty-seven teachers, he believed to be a professional number to elect at this time. He believed that 10 teachers, in addition to the six permanent substitutes still remaining from last year's list, would be sufficient. If more were needed they could be elected at some later time.

Dr. O'Connor said that a great majority of the new teachers of the 17 proposed, were teachers of experience, and he believed the schools would be benefited by adding them to the teaching force. He said he would not feel like voting for any one of the three girls who were tied for 25th place. He said that the expense, averaging $2000 a year, would not be greater than last year. "Mr. Rogers has said," continued Dr. O'Connor, "that the names of only ten teachers were presented last year. That statement is not correct. The names of 21 teachers were presented. We will not require substitute teachers this year and instead of paying permanent teachers $250 a day for every second day as has been the rule they will receive $200 for the full year. I am not concerned, however, as to the terms of other committees. I am going to stand on my own feet and I want to feel that I am assisting in giving the best service possible."

Dr. Bagley thought that rather than pay their daughters leave the city, parents would be glad to have them remain at home, and he did not believe that the citizens of Lowell would object to the plan for permanent substitutes.

Cost No Greater
Mr. Farrington figured that the cost of training these teachers would not be appreciably greater than under the old system. For Lowell, he said, had always had to pay for training her teachers. He said the present system was better than the old system of either the training school or board of supervisors. The supervisors were allowed $200 a year each and, adding expenses and the pay of 10 teachers at $250 a day for every school day, Mr. Farrington said would carry the total beyond the amount to be paid extra teachers this year. "I believe," he said, "that 27 teachers will be needed, and

SULLIVAN ISSUES CHALLENGE TO FRANK "PODGE" MURPHY

Father of Henry F. Sullivan Wants to Meet Son's Challenger
for a Purse

Henry F. Sullivan wants it understood that he will not accept the challenge of "Podge" Murphy to a swimming match, inasmuch as he is an amateur and Mr. Murphy a professional. Sullivan has an ambition to capture more honors in the amateur ranks, and would not sacrifice his standing by a match with Murphy.

Henry recently swam to the Boston Light and contemplated making several other long swims, under the rule of an amateur, and by participation in a race with a professional, whether for money or not, he would lose his standing.

Mr. Murphy issued a challenge to Young Sullivan last evening, and in fact has fired several at the young aquatic performer, and all had their effect on young Sullivan. He would like to swim Murphy, for he is confident that he would come out victorious, but as conditions are such that a match is impossible, the following may appeal to "Podge" as a good substitution: "Owing to the fact that Henry F. Sullivan cannot accept Mr. Frank Murphy's challenge to a swimming match without forfeiting his standing as a registered amateur, F. T. B. Sullivan, father of Henry F., will challenge Murphy to swim to Lawrence, the falls at South Broadway, for $100 a side, winner take all. I will meet Mr. Murphy or his representatives tomorrow night at 7 o'clock at The Sun office to arrange match."

(Signed) F. B. Sullivan.

GRAY IS UNDER ARREST ON CHARGE OF MURDER

He Admits Identity But Denies
That He Killed the Girl

BANGOR, July 31.—Sheriff White received a telephone message at midnight from Deputy Sheriff W. O. Estes of Brooks, saying that he had arrested a man who has been positively identified by a Carmel resident as J. Sherman Gray, wanted in connection with the murder of Naomi Mitchell at North Carmel last Wednesday night.

The arrested man admits his identity, acknowledges he was in the grocery store when the Mitchell girl came for supplies, but he denies killing her.

Brooks is about 25 miles south of the scene of the murder.

T. Herbert White, sheriff of Penobscot county, yesterday sent out notices broadcast throughout eastern and northern Maine, offering $200 reward for the capture of J. Sherman Gray of Carmel, wanted in connection with the murder of 14-year-old Naomi Mitchell on a lonely road in North Carmel.

The sheriff offers the money personally, as the county commissioners say there is no county funds available for such a purpose.

Yesterday County Attorney George E. Thompson made a formal request to Governor Plaskett to offer a reward under a state law, which makes such a provision. It is expected the governor will comply.

The Bangor police put in nearly eight hours on the case last night and this morning, scouring the territory from the Maine Central freight yards to Northern Maine Junction, including all the buildings at Maplewood park.

This action followed reports that a man answering Gray's description called at the house of James R. Wade on Pleasant street and asked for something to eat.

Although a search is still going on in the Kenduskeag neighborhood, nothing has come of it. A brief season of excitement was caused this morning by the report of the capture of Gray at South Lagrange, not far from Kenduskeag, by a crew of railroad section men. The man turned out to be a badly-scarred tramp.

OLD HOME DAY OBSERVED IN CARLISLE

Big Parade and Outing
of Residents

The residents of Carlisle are today holding what is commonly known as Old Home day, an event which has been long looked for by the people of the village. On this day the residents of the town as well as the former residents meet in a general outing and enjoy the time of their lives. The affair is being held in the centre of the village and a very large throng of people, including the children, is in attendance.

At 10 o'clock this morning one of the prettiest parades ever seen in the village was held through the main street. The large body of marchers being preceded by a brass band. The paraders marched through the village and later directed their footsteps to the place selected by the committee for the outing. The remaining part of the forenoon was given to trade exhibits of all kinds including novelties, local hits, etc.

A very appetizing dinner was served on the green at noon and the meal was an occasion at which many renewed old acquaintances. At the conclusion of the feast and during the entire afternoon a varied and long list of sports was carried out to the satisfaction of all present.

The committee responsible for the success of the affair was composed of the following: Rev. Granville Pierce, chairman; Miss Anna Hanson, secretary; Frank J. Bligh, Ralph Gerow, Albert W. Davis, Herbert E. Dutton, Winifred Lee, George E. Wilkins, Jas. H. Wilkins, Warren C. Duren, Mrs. Nettie O. Wilson, Charles A. Skelton, Gilbert Wilkins, Edmund L. French, James S. Anthony, Florence Anthony, Harold T. Chamberlain, Mrs. Mary T. Chamberlain and Mrs. Sarah E. Wilson.

EX-PRES. ELIOT

FAVORS EQUAL IMMIGRATION
FOR WOMEN

HONOLULU, July 31.—"Equal immigration for women" was the substance of a proposition broached here yesterday by Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard university. "If men immigrate the women of their race should come, too," he said. He advocated laws which would prevent the preponderance of more than five per cent of men over women in any race entering the country. Moral stamina and racial purity, he said, would be safeguarded by such regulation.

NOTORIOUS THIEF HAS BEEN CAUGHT

He Was Pursued For
Four Months

CALGARY, Alberta, July 31.—Pursued for four months through the wilds of northern Canada by members of the Northwest Mounted police, Will Ropp, said by the authorities to be the most notorious horse rustler and cattle thief in the western country, has been apprehended and is in the barracks here today awaiting trial. The chase covered nearly 2000 miles. Ropp, tired of being hunted, finally gave up and confessed in detail several hundred crimes, adding that he had probably committed as many more, details of which he has forgotten.

REVENUE CUTTER DISCOVERS DERELICT THAT MAY BE TUG NINA

NORFOLK, Va., July 31.—The revenue cutter Unalga has discovered near Winter Quarter a derelict that may prove to be the tug Nina, which foundered in a gale in January, 1910, while en route to New York from this port.

Twenty-nine men went down with the tug and for two weeks the navy department had revenue cutters scouring the seas for the missing boat.

RESCUED MOTHER

BOY SWAM TO ASSISTANCE OF DROWNING WOMAN

WEBSTER, July 31.—Mrs. Joseph H. Wall of Montreal, who is camping at Webster lake, narrowly escaped drowning yesterday afternoon. A canoe in which she was sailing overturned about 20 feet from the Point Breeze wharf. Mrs. Wall, who is unable to swim, screamed for help and attracted the attention of her 13-year-old son John, who was in the cottage. The boy did not go for help but instead plunged into the water, swam to his mother's side, and as she was sinking for the third time managed to keep her afloat. By this time other campers had been attracted by Mrs. Wall's screams and had rushed to the scene and the woman was saved.

The incident is considered little short of a miracle, as Mrs. Wall weighs 190 pounds, while her son, the rescuer, scarcely tips the scales at 55.

A WARM GREETING FOR OUR ATHLETES

Who Are Returning From
Sweden Today

NEW YORK, July 31.—The advance guard of the army of American athletes returning from the Olympic games at Stockholm, where they carried the Stars and Stripes so often to victory, arrived here today on board the Red Star liner Vandaland.

Among the athletes were representatives of all branches of sport.

The liner docked about 9 o'clock, and on the wharf waiting to meet the athletes was a great crowd of relatives, friends and admirers.

The members of the team appeared to be in the best of trim.

They had had a splendid voyage, which, however, was not unenlivened by the excitement of training as on the outward voyage on board the Finland. Discipline was entirely relaxed on the way home and this was a welcome relief to all after their long period of strict training and exercise.

Not one of the Americans who returned today had a bad word to say for the arrangements at Stockholm, where everything possible to be done for their comfort and convenience was carried out with thoroughness by the Swedes.

Hardly a trace of jealousy between the teams representing the various nations was noticed and the work of the judges in the stadium was praised by all who took part in the competition.

Great admiration was expressed by both trainers and athletes for the excellent performance of A. S. Jackson of England in the 1500 metres race, of the two Kolumians of Finland, the long distance flyers and of the South African runners, K. K. McArthur and C. W. Gilshaw in the Marathon.

Jim Thorpe of the Carlisle Indian school, who proved himself the best all-round athlete at the games, came in for much praise.

The American shooters, according to some of the members of the team, owed considerable thanks to the excellence of their rifles, but Sergeant Ommundsen of the English rifle team told them that if even the English had been armed with the American rifles they could not have beaten the American team.

Before the athletes landed each was given a card of invitation to the reception on Aug. 24, when the entire team, who will by that time have re-assembled, will parade through the city of New York.

COLORS DRAPED.

LONDON, July 31.—The war vessels of the British fleet have been ordered by the admiralty to fly their colors draped with crepe at half-mast and the Japanese flag at the peak, as a mark of respect to the dead emperor of Japan.

To The "Iron Woman"

WHAT THE THERMO-CELL IS

The Thermo-cell is a dead air chamber permanently surrounding the top surface of each "Universal" iron. A dead air space being a non-conductor of heat, the Thermo-cell insulates the entire upper surface of the iron and prevents the radiation of its heat.

WHAT THIS MEANS

First: The iron heats quicker because the heat absorbed from the stove is retained in the body of the iron by the Thermo-cell. No other iron has this feature.

Second: The iron keeps hot longer because after the iron is heated and in use, the protecting Thermo-cell prevents the heat escaping from the body of the iron except through the ironing face.

SECRET WEDDING

REVEALED BY MESSAGE ADDRESSED TO WOMAN

HAVERHILL, July 31.—The receipt of a message addressed to Mrs. John P. Clark yesterday revealed a marriage that had been kept a secret for more than a month.
Mr. Clark came to this city from Dover in 1910 to become the night telegraph operator. Early this year Miss Ruth Parker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Parker, accepted a position as clerk at the telegraph office and the friendship that was formed soon ripened into love, ending in their marriage.

Yesterday when a message was received for Mrs. Clark from Chelsea, the messenger boy returned to Chelsea with a card that admitted that she was married and that the former night operator was her husband.

Explanations followed and it developed that the couple were married Sunday, June 23, when Mr. and Mrs. Clark went for a brief visit to Dover, N. H., but Mrs. Clark declines to tell where or by whom the marriage ceremony was performed. Mrs. Clark has resigned her position as clerk at the telegraph office and will leave this city shortly to live with her husband, who was appointed manager of the office in Chelsea six weeks ago.

BOXING, GOLF
AND ATHLETICSLOWELL AGAIN HANDED IT
TO NEW BEDFORD WHALERSScore 4 to 1—Pfeffer Pitched a Great Game, Morris' Home
Run a Feature

Lowell handed it to New Bedford again yesterday afternoon, winning an interesting game by the score of 4 to 1. The game, like the one on the preceding day, was closely contested, and the whalers had everything but a walkaway. The visitors played a snappy game and several times threatened to turn the tables. "Big Left" Pfeffer was on the mound for Lowell and he twirled a fine game. Wolfgang in center field played another wonderful game, and the fielding of Jimmy Magee was great.

The entire Lowell bunch played fast baseball and deserved to win. For New Bedford, Charlie Pruitt, who has had great success against Lowell, was number one, and pitched masterly ball after the first inning. In the opening session Lowell scored three runs, but after that Pruitt tightened up and allowed the Grays but a lone tally. New Bedford's run resulted from a home run by Morris.

First Inning
In the first inning Sweatt filed to Boudles and Connaughton filed to Wolfgang. Ness hit to Dee, who fumbled, and the runner was safe at first. Morris was retired on strikes.

In the latter half of the inning the home team scored three runs. Wolfgang started off with a single and Connaughton followed with a home run to right field. De Groff followed to right field. De Groff followed to right field. De Groff followed to right field.

Second Inning
Neither side scored in the second inning. Maranville filed to Dee, O'Connell filed to Wolfgang and Spires went out on a fly to Magee.

In Lowell's half Dee and Lavigne filed to O'Connell and Pfeffer filed to Ness.

Third Inning
Two more goose eggs were registered in the third inning. Kibbullen and Pruitt struck out. Sweatt hit between first and second bases and Halstein threw the runner out at first, Pfeffer covering the bag.

Wolfgang and Magee hit to Pruitt and failed to reach first. De Groff was passed up but was nailed when he tried to steal.

Fourth Inning
Connaughton filed to Magee and Ness walked. Morris then got a hit to center, it being the first hit made by New Bedford. Maranville hit to Boudles who threw to second, getting Morris, and the ball was thrown to first for a double play.

Halstein and Miller filed to Connaughton and Boudles filed to Ness.

Fifth Inning
O'Connell beat out a bunt. Spires hit to Halstein who threw to Dee getting O'Connell at second. Kibbullen hit to Dee and the latter tagged second getting Spires and then threw to first for a double play.

Dee hit to Pruitt and was out at first. Lavigne fanned. Pfeffer hit a hot one which Maranville popped and threw the runner out at first.

Sixth Inning
Pruitt singled to center and Sweatt filed to Magee. Connaughton went out on a foul fly to Lavigne and Ness was third out on a fly to De Groff.

Wolfgang filed to Sweatt and Magee was out Spires to first. De Groff fanned.

Seventh Inning
New Bedford broke the ice in the seventh. Morris, the first man up, slammed the sphere over the left field fence for a homer. Maranville struck out. O'Connell hit to Boudles who fumbled and the runner was safe. O'Connell then stole second. Spires went out. Pfeffer in first. Kibbullen hit to Magee, who made a sensational catch of the ball in left field.

Halstein singled over first base and Miller bunted to Pruitt and was out at first. Halstein went to second on the bunt but ran over the bag and Ness threw to Maranville and got him. Boudles hit to Maranville and was out at first.

Eighth Inning
Pruitt hit to Dee, who threw badly to first and the runner was safe. Sweatt bunted to Pfeffer and the latter was rather wild on the throw and both men were safe. They were advanced on Connaughton's sacrifice. Ness was out on strikes. Morris filed to Magee.

Dee hit to Connaughton and died at first and Lavigne followed with a single to right field. Pfeffer hit to Spires who fumbled and he was safe at first. Wolfgang singled to left, scoring Lavigne. Pfeffer went to third and Wolff reached second on the throw.

Score—Lowell 4, New Bedford 1.

DIAMOND NOTES
Who said Haddon?
Lawrence dropped two. Too bad.
Brackton did the come back stunt yesterday, with Lawrence the victim. We thank you.

Magee did some star fielding, and he also pitched a fine single. We still like Jimmy and so does Burckett. The latter would like to have the Lowell outfielder parading around in the garden for the Busters, but we need him.

The series between Lowell and New Bedford now stands 3 to 6 with the Whalers on the long end.

Pfeffer pitched a remarkable game and had the visitors at his mercy all the while.

Wolfgang again played a magnificent game in center field. He accepted the two chances that came his way and also negotiated two hits.

Owing to the fact that Clemens is on the sick list, and the race is so close that Manager Gray does not like to take the chance of allowing Wolfgang to injure his arm, he has secured Fred McDonald, a former University of Vermont man to fill in. McDonald played with Halstein on the University team and is reputed to be a very fast man. He is a fine fielder and slicker and will appear in the lineup today. It is expected that Clemens will be back in a few days, but in the event of the new man showing class he will be watched.

Wolfgang is too valuable a man in the box to play him in the field, but Lowell is very fortunate in having such a willing and capable man to fill in.

Lowell at Lynn today. Zaiser will take the heating for Lowell. Lynn will come to Lowell tomorrow for a double header with the Grays, the first game to start at 2 o'clock. Wolfgang and Maybom are the pitchers carded to work, and Harrington, the star twirler of the Terrers, will probably work in one of the games. Harrington has not been seen in action on the local grounds this season, and as he is being at a fast clip, Manager Terry may send him in.

That prediction by Manager Gray that Lowell would beat the procession by August 1, looks kind of good from the road at the present time. Lowell winning yesterday and Lawrence dropping two to Brockton makes Lowell's first one game in the rear. The games of today and tomorrow will be closely watched.

DOUBLE-HEADERS
DISCUSSED AT NEW ENGLAND LEAGUE MEETING.
BOSTON, July 31.—The consideration of double-headers was the principal business before the directors of the New England Baseball League at their meeting last night at the American Hotel.

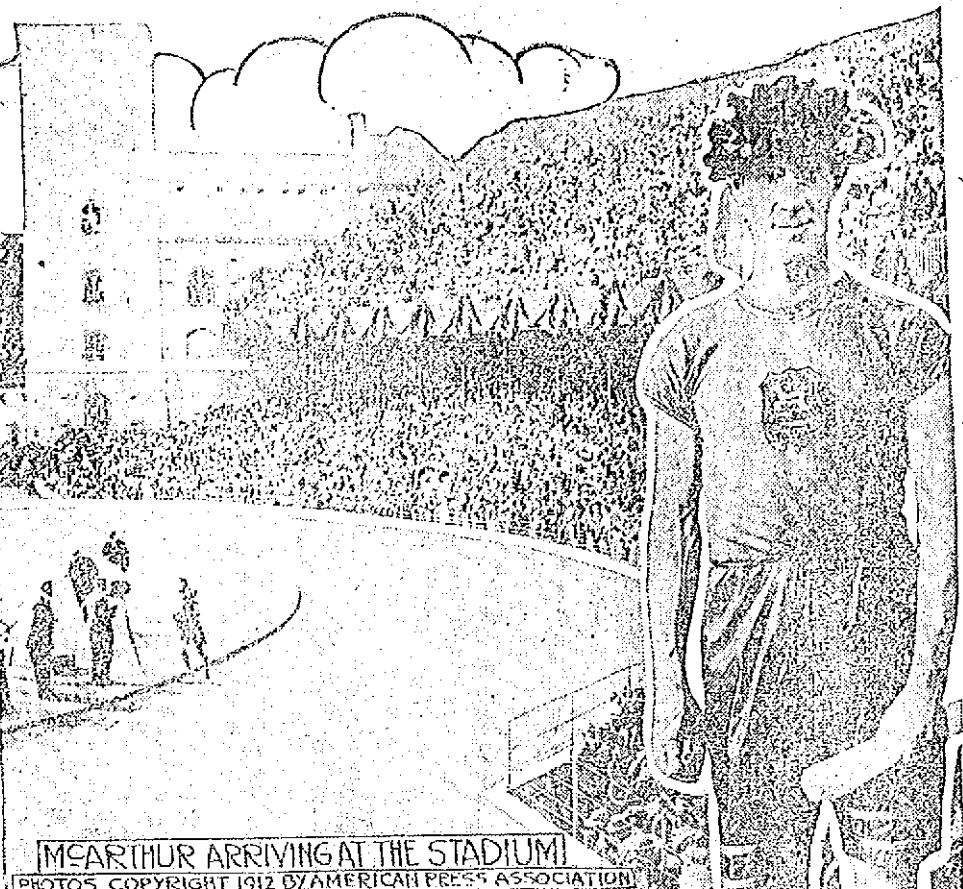

The league sanctioned the playing of a double-header between Brockton and Lynn at Lynn on Saturday, Aug. 10, one game being transferred from Brockton, it being impossible to play the game in that city, as there is no ground there.

Double-headers were also arranged to be played as follows: Lawrence at Haverhill, Saturday, Aug. 10; Haverhill at Lawrence, Saturday, Aug. 17; and Worcester at Haverhill, Monday, Aug. 19.

The Lawrence club entered a protest against the double-header won by Lowell at Lowell, on the ground that the team had 15 men in uniform, for more than the league rules allowed.

The protest at the meeting was handled by J. C. Mosey, who presided.

President E. B. Fraser and Manager T. J. Leonard, of Lynn; Fred John W. McCue and Treasurer Joseph Burns of Brockton; President D. E. Clancy of Haverhill; Director James Clancy of Fall River; and Manager James J. Gray of Lowell, Worcester was represented by proxy.

M'Arthur of South Africa, Winner of
Olympic Marathon, May Visit America

NEW YORK, July 31.—Before he left Stockholm, Sweden, for his home in South Africa, K. K. M'Arthur, winner of the Olympic Marathon, stated that he intended to visit America next year to show his running ability on this side of the water. According to many experts, M'Arthur is one of the greatest of all long distance runners. He is anything but a Hares-Dorando-Tawaniama type of runner. He is 29 years of age, 6 feet tall and weighs 174 pounds. M'Arthur's career has suffered from bad luck. He went to Greece for a Marathon which was postponed on account of political troubles and afterward went to England to take part in one which was postponed on account of the death of King Edward. M'Arthur has never lost a race. When not competing in athletic events M'Arthur is a policeman in the Transvaal. When M'Arthur reached the stadium the entire assemblage arose and cheered him to the end of the journey, which was one lap on the stadium track. When he had finished a crowd of his supporters rushed up to him, crowned him with a floral wreath and carried him off the field.

CRUMBS OF BASEBALL
Culled by "Sul" From Circuit Dope Sheets

With Van Dyke in shape again Barckett is now well fortified for the rush down the stretch.

That Worcester team has been doing some heavy clubbing in the last fortnight—Exchange. Others have too.

Though down in the race, New Bedford and Fall River have a comfortable way of turning on the best of 'em when it is least expected.

In the last eight games he played with Brockton, Second Baseman Howland made only one hit in 25 times at bat, an awful slump.—Exchange. He'll come back.

Kennedy of Lawrence has the faculty of "laying" for batters down to perfection. At this he is as good as any outfielder in the league.

Allie Moulton, formerly Lowell second baseman, is heading the batting order of the Memphis club of the Southern league and is playing a fine game in the field.

"You can take it from me," says Jack Ness, "that I am perfectly satisfied to play in New Bedford, and Brockton is the last town I would think of playing in."

Van Dyke got back into the box Saturday for the first time since he hurt a finger in New Bedford, July 2. He signalled his return by pitching brilliantly against Brockton and winning his game.

There is a noticeable tendency among the managers in the league to put less and less dependence on sacrifice hitting. "What's the good of sacrifice, anyway," asks John O'Brien of Fall River. "It only brings one run, and the way my team is going, we need to run to win a game. It will be hit-and-run for Fall River in the future, with never a let up, if we make a cricket out of it."

We've ordered the pennant and engaged the umpire for playing day next season—Lowell. Says rather premature—Exchange. We don't think so.

Anderson of Brockton has won four out of five games. He has pitched against Worcester this year.

Pfeffer's players will have to fight hard this week to keep in front. They tackle Brockton, Worcester, Lowell and Lynn.

Woodman needs two disheartened because Lowell got to his curves Saturday. The champs are wracking every pitcher on the circuit these days.—Lynn Item.

There seems to be little chance of Worcester capturing the pennant. Lowell, Lawrence and Lynn are playing consistent ball, while the home team is good and bad and in many cases unreliable—Worcester Post.

One fan said: "Well, when forty umpires again in this city, I will go to the game." Red certainly gets away with his job with less kicking on part of spectators and players alike than any umpire in the league.—New Bedford Standard.

will go to the game." Red certainly gets away with his job with less kicking on part of spectators and players alike than any umpire in the league.—New Bedford Standard.

The Rochester club of the International league has made an offer to Brockton for Pitcher Upham. Rochester wants Upham for immediate delivery. The Brockton club is willing to give him up, provided the cash consideration is tempting enough and that Rochester sends along another pitcher to replace him.

In examining the records of the Lowell team to date the fact stands out that Lowell leads all competitors in everything that ordinarily goes with a pennant winner. Lowell has made more singles and more extra base hits than any other team, has stolen more bases and has scored more runs, yet the team is fighting desperately to secure a permanent berth in the first division.

Says the Haverhill Gazette: "Big Jack Carney is creating a sensation among the sports and a large number are rushing to the New England league to look over the local first baseman. A scout has been following Larry Pratt for some time. Cy Perkins is also being considered by the sports. Then this Georgetown boy, Clarence Robinson, has got the people talking."

With the exception of the battery positions a mighty fine club could be formed of ex-Haverhill players now wearing the uniforms of other clubs in the league. There is McGamwell with Lowell for first, Connaughton of New Bedford for second, Audrey of Worcester for short and Harrington of Brockton for third; Clemens of Lowell, Wallace of Lynn, Briggs of Lawrence, and Merrill of Fall River front which to pick the outfield.—Haverhill Gazette.

There is one club in the league that Lawrence has to fear, and it's Lowell. The champs have a great team and look like a good bet for the honors. Jimmy Gray has a bunch of hard hitters, fine base stealers and in fact a good all round team. There are few weak spots.—Exchange.

Lawrence knows it, too, judging from the way Manager Pfeffer is "crying."

Barrows, former captain of the Lowell champs, is playing consistent baseball with the Jersey Skeeters. In a game recently he made two hits in three times up in which he made one home run and a single, and had two chances and accepted them both.

Worcester and Lowell will play in Lowell next Saturday afternoon. Jesse should start grooming up a pitcher for this contest, as it might mean the lead in the race. Lowell is the team that Worcester will have to beat out to win the pennant this season. The winners of last year's box are by a big margin the best all around team in the league.—Worcester Post.

CUTS THE WORLD'S RECORD
FOR FOUR-YEAR-OLD PBraden Direct Winner at C land in the Year's Fastest Race

CLEVELAND, O., July 31.—Braden Direct, 2034, just 4 years old, yesterday aroused 6000 race-foers at North Randall by lowering the world's record for a 4-year-old pacing colt, when he won the second heat of the $2000 Forest City stake, 2:06 class.

Just 18 years ago at Sioux City, Ia., Online, driven against time, paced a mile in 2:04. The report that a 4-year-old had made that time found many doubters, and that the skeptical had some ground for views is indicated by the years this record weathered the storm of attack.

Yesterday, after finishing ninth in the first heat, this newest champion of the Brown Hat tribe raced past the two Circuit favorites, but erratic Don Pronto and the swift Branham Baughman and shot under the wire a winner by a safe margin. He had moved up from sixth position to catch the Cox pacer, Branham Baughman, 10 yards from the wire.

Few realized the significance of the time—2:03½—until Starting Judge Frank Walker announced that a world's record had been made.

Owned by J. H. Sponss, Braden Direct is a strictly pacing-bred colt. He is unusual in many ways. He raced last year in the 3-year-old futurities winning four, including a seven-heat race at Lexington. He has never been beaten in a race with horses of his age, although he was started three times last season against aged horses. He earned a record of 2:07½ at Columbus.

Braden Direct did the last half in 1:01. The official time for the last quarter was 31½ seconds. He came back in the third heat and won easily in 2:05½. As Ginger won the first heat in 2:04½, this makes the fastest race of the year.

Grand as was this race, horsemen wondered last night what would have happened had not lameness forced the withdrawal of the sensational California entrant, Jim Logan, who had been made the favorite. Jim Logan won at Detroit in 2:03½ and on the strength of this performance the talent picked him to beat the Denver colt. Jim Logan sold for $1000; Braden Direct, $855; Branham Baughman, $200; Don Pronto, $200; King Daphne, $200; Judge Ward, $100, and the field, $20.

Addon, son of Axworthy, proved to have more stamina than any other of the nine well-bred youngsters in the 3-year-old sweepstakes. The first two heats went against him, but he came back strong and won the third.

Only the heat winners competed in the fourth, and in this Addon outclassed his field. He won by 80 yards in 2:13½.

Brighton B finishing second in a close finish with Graham Bell. In the five Cord favorite in the 2:30 trot, celebrated her first victory in a professional race, when she defeated nine trotters in straight heats, distancing two of them.

In the final event of the day, the 2:04 pace, Sir R. driven by T. W. Murphy, won in straight heats with the aid of Major Brine. Coming down the stretch in the first heat of this race Major Brine was leading. Don Denvers was on the outside and it did not look possible for Murphy to squeeze through at the pole. But he drove Sir R. into the knothole and then, the judges claim, Major Brine pulled over, allowing Murphy to get through.

Sir R. won the heat in a head-and-head finish with Don Denvers in 2:05½. The judges cautioned Driver Hodson. Sir R. won on his merits in 2:04½ in another close finish with Don Denvers, Major Brine and Peter the Second finishing close up.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL STANDS BY STILES

Ald. Cummings Offered Motion That Treasurer be Asked to Resign

The Stiles matter was taken up at the meeting of the municipal council this afternoon and the council refused to request the city treasurer's resignation.

Mayor O'Donnell called to order at 2:20 o'clock and the first business had to do with a hearing on the question of the sign on the Howe building and the hearing in the matter was postponed for one week.

The order to appropriate $3000 for the Lowell Textile school, the annual amount, was adopted. Another order for $1000 to be paid the trustees of the school for free scholarships was laid on the table until the matter of scholarships has been arranged.

An order to borrow $4000 for the building of a book stack in the public library was read by the mayor. City Librarian Chase was present and answered questions asked by the mayor and other members of the government. The questions had to do with the library equipment, books, etc. He said that the library increases about 100 shelves a year and that no addition has been made to the stack since the Memorial building. At the present rate of increase he said, that the stack asked for now would provide for at least 15 years to come. The order was adopted, Alderman Brown voting against.

Several minor petitions having to do with poles and wire attachments were properly referred.

Notice of personal injury by Michael J. Kelly was referred to the city solicitor. Mr. Kelly sustained an injury to his hand in Market street while in the employ of the water department.

Ald. Barrett said that the accident was due to the fact that conduits belonging to public service corporations were laid on the same side of the street as the water mains and he asked the commissioner of streets to oblige such corporations to lay their conduits on the opposite side of the street to the water mains.

Notice of claims by Pierre L. Gregoire for injury in military at his store in Merrimack street was referred to the city solicitor. The damage was due to the overflow of a sewer in Kirk avenue.

The ordinance for compensatory fee for pile locations and wire attachments came up for enactment. The ordinance having passed to be enrolled at the last meeting of the council. The ordinance was passed and will become operative in ten days.

An order having to do with the holding of primaries by precincts and the appointment of a committee on polling places, was adopted.

The report of E. J. Gilmore and others for a sewer in Llewellyn and Third streets was read. The petition for this sewer has been hanging fire for some time. The estimated cost of the sewer is $7481 and the estimated sewer assessment on abutters in Llewellyn and Third streets, $3000. The order accompanying the report was adopted.

On motion of Alderman Barrett it was voted to instruct the city solicitor to ascertain the city's rights in the lands bordering on the Merrimack river in the vicinity of First street and to report at the next meeting.

Daniel E. Hogan's bond as assessor of taxes was approved.

The report of the commission on streets and highways on the petition of Amasa Pratt and others for a sewer in Dutton street was read and accepted.

The mayor read a letter from Jeremiah J. Carey of the building inspection department of the state police stating that he had made an inspection of the premises some years ago and found that the sanitary conditions were very poor, but the matter, now, he said, comes under the state board of health. On motion of Alderman Cummings it was voted to instruct the local board of health to inspect the premises and report to the council one week from today. The order for the sewer went over temporarily.

The order authorizing the Pay State street railway to relocate its tracks in Middlesex street near the Chelmsford line was adopted.

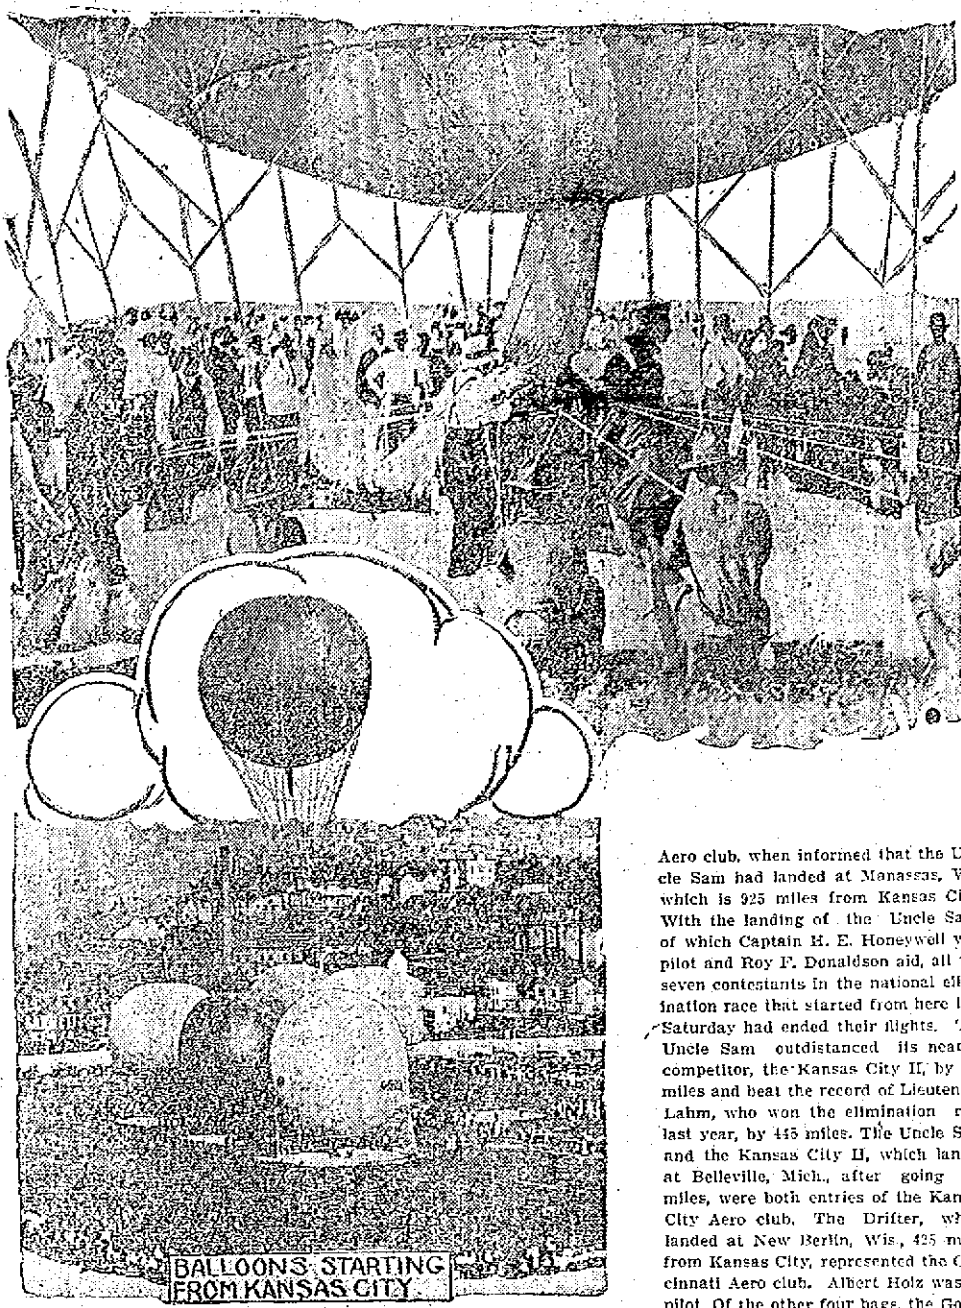

The mayor read a communication from the Lowell Socialist club relative to alleged violations of the 8-hour law. It was stated in the letter that the 8-hour law had not been observed on the car sprinklers and the new reservoir. The communication was signed by William J. Carroll.

Ald. Barrett moved that a hearing be granted the Lowell Socialist club one week from tonight. Mr. Barrett said there had been no violation of the 8-hour law on the reservoir except a few days ago and that was a case of emergency. He said the charge was unfair to him and he thought the matter should be threshed out at a public hearing.

Alderman Brown said he had nothing to do with the hours worked by men on the car sprinklers. That is up, he said, to the Car Sprinkler company. The city of Lowell has nothing to do with it.

An amendment by Mayor O'Donnell to Ald. Barrett's motion to the effect that the hearing be given, Lowell Soc-

ANNUAL OUTING

OF THE CHILDREN OF FRENCH AMERICAN ORPHANAGE

The third annual outing of the orphans of the French American orphanage was held today at the home of Mr. Pierre Tremblay, caretaker of St. Joseph's cemetery in East Chelmsford. The event as usual was held under the auspices of the members of St. Joseph's Sewing circle, Mrs. Charles H. Bolsvort, president.

The affair was attended by several hundred people, as a general invitation had been extended to the entire parish, inasmuch as the members of St. Anne's sodality had arranged for a whistle in the afternoon for the benefit of the new buildings now being constructed at the orphanage.

The little lots after attending mass at St. Jean Baptiste church were placed aboard special electric cars at 5 o'clock this morning, the starting point being Merrimack street, at the church. There were seven special cars altogether and the party was taken to the corner of Gosham and Centre streets, from where the little ones were conveyed to the picnic grounds in automobiles furnished by several local people.

Upon arriving at the well appointed grounds, the children were given entire liberty to do as they pleased and they certainly enjoyed themselves. At noon a dainty dinner was served to them in the open air and the afternoon was devoted to outdoor games and sports.

The altar boys of St. Joseph's and St. Jean Baptiste churches formed two baseball teams, the former being defeated by a score of 21 to 23. Brother Levesque had charge of the game and under his direction the little ones enjoyed the game immensely.

In the afternoon while the adults were enjoying whilst under the direction of Mrs. Pierre Tremblay who was ably assisted by a score of members of St. Anne's sodality, a varied program of sports was carried out in a delightful manner. Rev. Jerome Diss, O. M. I., being in charge. The events and winners were as follows:

Chenelle the fat men's race. The final, the fat women's race was won by Mrs. Pierre Beaulieu, while W. A. Dragon captured first prize in the young men's race.

At 4 o'clock religious services were held by the children at the graves of their deceased parents and also at the graves of Rev. A. M. Garin, O. M. I. and Rev. J. A. Fournier, O. M. I.

Among those present were Rev. Joseph Letebvre, O. M. I., chaplain of the orphanage; Rev. Henri Wattelle, O. M. I., pastor, and Rev. Jerome Diss, O. M. I., as well as the nuns of the institution.

New York Police Lieutenant Indicted on Murder Charge

LIEUT. BECKER

NEW YORK, July 31.—Police Lieutenant Charles A. Becker, indicted for murder in connection with the killing of Rosenthal, the gambler, has had a stormy career since he was appointed to the police force Nov. 1, 1893. When he was an ordinary policeman in uniform patrolling city streets he shot and killed a plumber's helper, John Fay. Becker was chasing a gang of burglars and Fay was an innocent bystander. Fay was "identified" by the police as John O'Brien, a burglar, and until the young plumber's helper was identified Becker received much applause. After that he was suspended, and an investigation was held. But nothing happened. Policemen who have known "Charlie" Becker for a long time chiefly remember the occasion when he received a medal for saving the life of a man. On a July morning one James Butler tumbled into the water at West Tenth street. Becker is said to have gone after him and rescued him in the nick of time. He wore his medal for two years, and then Butler made an affidavit that he was an expert swimmer and had gone overboard at the request of Becker and a promise that he would receive $15. Becker never paid the money, Butler said so he called Becker a "fake hero." He added that Becker would have drowned if he (Butler) hadn't pulled him out. Becker was arrested while on duty at a station in the Bronx. He objected to being photographed. The smaller picture shows how he covered his face with his hat when an attempt was made to get a picture of him by flashlight.

TREACHERY OF JAPAN

Still the jealousy between the powers in the old world goes on apace. England is laying plans to head off any warlike movement on the part of Germany; but while engrossed with this idea, Japan begins to join the anti-British plotters. It might be expected that Japan would be the last power to form any friendly alliance with Russia; but, nevertheless, if we are to believe the opinions expressed by prominent Japanese publications, it appears that an alliance is about to be effected between Japan and Russia. The provisions of the agreement, it is said, are to include a definite arrangement as to the rights of either empire in Mongolia, the settlement of boundary lines and commercial interests that in the past have been a source of controversy between these two powers. Japan seems to have become suddenly embittered against England because of certain commercial discriminations by British merchants and bankers.

London has shown a willingness to advance large amounts to China but refuses to loan money to Japan. This and other instances are cited as a cause for the acute feeling of hostility towards England that is beginning to prevail in Japan. But the worst feature is the threat to join hands with Germany, the most deadly foe of British interests.

These tendencies on the part of Japan to fall in line with the enemies of England are set forth in the Japanese Magazine as follows:—

"If Britain should refuse to continue her alliance with us, all we could do would be to bow to the inevitable. In that case we should be forced to seek the alliance of Germany. In addition to that of Russia, German wealth and industry are gradually creeping upward to that of Great Britain and America, and the efficiency of the German army and navy is a model for the world. If the alliance with England should ever be abrogated, we might be very glad to shake hands with Germany." And then, with exceptional prescience: "Our war with Russia led us to know that country as we never knew it before, and, consequently, taught us a mutual respect for each other."

The wisest minds in both Japan and Russia never want to see the two countries locked in the arms of bloody conflict again. As long as wise statesmanship prevails in the two countries a Russo-Japanese alliance is not only possible, but might be eminently practicable and advisable.

Evidently Japan is bound to be a disturber on the international chess-board. She is thus plotting the most treacherous alliance against England, not only with England's worst enemy on the continent, but her greatest European rival at sea.

Is it any wonder then that England will turn to France as her chief European ally?

It is doubtless the dread of a great war with Germany or some other nation that causes England to make such an effort to conciliate Ireland and her various colonies with the hope that they may all prove loyal when the test shall come. At the present time it is not likely that any of them would fail to do its duty if England were in a conflict with Germany or any other power. This action on the part of Japan looking to an alliance with Russia and Germany, if carried would be a very serious menace to England as it would be greater than any she could bring up in opposition unless she had an alliance with the United States. Japan seems to be a very ambitious and at the same time a very aggressive power. She is the disturber of the Orient and even worse than Germany in stirring up international strife.

FINAL DECISION ON THAW

Perhaps after all we should congratulate ourselves that when as in the Thaw case, the electric chair is cheered by the influence of money, the same influence afterwards fails to secure the release of the murderer from an insane asylum on the plea that he is now sane and a fit man to be turned loose on society. It would be a somewhat compromising position in which to place a court to ask it to rule that a man is sane but a few years after he had escaped the death penalty on the ground of being morally irresponsible. It is to be hoped that Judge Keogh's clear and pointed decision will put an end to the efforts to secure his release. By this time Thaw would probably have been as well satisfied if he had allowed the law to take its course and paid the real penalty of his crime.

The best way to protect boys against accidental shooting is to prevent them having access to dangerous weapons. Scoldon has a more flagrant instance of youthful foolishness here recorded than in the death of little Louis Dion of Lawrence, who, disbelieving the power of a revolver in the hands of another boy, said: "You can try it on me." The boy with the revolver did so with fatal effect. The accident will be deplored of course, but it is only one of perhaps 10,000 that would never have occurred if people would avoid placing dangerous weapons in the hands of children. The Dion boy was shot on "a dare" and others have been shot as a result of this and other incidents which could not have occurred but for the mistake of allowing children to play with dangerous firearms.

It was with poor grace that Senator Bailey censured President Taft for expressing an opinion as to the validity of Senator Lorimer's title to his seat. The senator waxed indignant at the thought that the president should express any opinion on a matter the decision of which rested with the senate. But the president spoke in behalf of public decency when he had a right so to speak. Bailey used all his efforts to sustain Lorimer, and in the opinion of many there is not much difference between the two men. If Bailey were as loyal to his party as he was to Lorimer he would not be despised as he is at the present time by all true democrats.

The rest of the world is watching closely the workings of the new national insurance law just put into effect in England and one of the many reform schemes of Chancellor Lloyd George. It goes farther than any law of the kind yet framed in any other country, the insurance against unemployment being unique. The question has been asked, how will the English people pay the expenses incurred by this and the old age pension law, but Chancellor George has laid the taxes where they will do the least harm, on the shoulders of the rich who in the past have escaped without paying their fair share of the taxes.

With Mr. Bryan following closely after him on all his speaking tours in the presidential campaign, Mr. Bryan will not be able to know something of how the big game of Africa felt when he was on their trail—President Taft.

The shuttling is good as coming from a republican paper, and we might add that Bryan will not require such a reminder to help him lag the game or at least to recover some of his stolen policies.

HENRY GRADY, WHO IS APPEARING AT THE MERRIMACKSQUARE THEATRE.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The closing scene in the one-act playlet, "The Revenant," presented at the Merrimack Square theatre this week, is one of the most thrilling scenes ever put on the stage, a scene in which the guilty wife and her lover meet with as terrible and as just a revenge at the hands of her husband as could possibly have been meted out to them. Henry Grady, as the wronged husband, was remarkably good and won enthusiastic applause. Hazel Burgess, as his wife, and Charles Stevens, as the artist, provide exceedingly able support and as a whole this playlet is one of the finest acted bits of drama ever given at this theatre.

Mae and Lillian Burns continue to please greatly in their dainty musical act, among the most enjoyable features of their act being the playing of "Tramplers" on the cello and of many sweet Swiss bells. Smithy-Smith in his odd dances and clever songs also is making quite a hit with the audience. Alice Bagley in her illustrated songs, "Dixie Moon" and "That Hypnotizing Man," two of her most successful songs, continues high in popular favor. The photo-plays this week are just about the best ever seen at this theatre, two of them, "The Rapid City" and "The Talker," being just about the most laughable films ever produced.

LAKEVIEW DANCE HALL

The manager of the Lakeview dance hall has provided a fine program for his patrons this week. Added to the special selections on the piccolo and xylophone, which are given every night by Z. I. Bissone and Tom Prol, on Thursday evening, all who visit the hall will receive souvenirs. The latter are very pretty and a number have been secured all are assured of receiving one of the gifts. On Friday evening a novelty number, known as the surprise waltz, will be given, and this is sure to be greatly enjoyed not only by the dancers but also those who visit the park to hear the music. The orchestra plays a concert program before the session afternoon and evening, and many lovers of music frequent the park to hear the selections. The floor at the hall is better than ever and the crowds are increasing daily. At the fountain adjoining the dance hall all the best temperance drinks are served.

CANOBIE LAKE THEATRE

Once again at Canobie Lake Park theatre, during the present week is shown the best in vaudeville. The "Willows," in their wonderful acrobatic dancing, hold the attention of the audience. Lovers of Scotch ballads find in Scottie Donovan one who renders them with a masterly touch, and his clean Scotch humor meets a ready response. Wallace Gavin is in a class by himself and stands at the head. His pleasing personality and wonderful manipulation of inanimate objects will always keep him a favorite. ## SCALP COVERED WITH WHITE SCALES

Itching Terribly. Hair Came Out. Terrible Lot of Dandruff. Scales Would Fall on Coat. Scratched Until Made Big Sores. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Him.

5 Brewer St., Newport, R. I. — "My husband had eczema for six months all this time taking medicine and using salve not doing him any good. The trouble grew worse. It started with red itching spots all over the scalp, covered with a thickness of white scales itching terribly. His hair came out, and he had a terrible lot of dandruff. The white scales could be seen in his hair as they peeled off, and would fall down on his coat. He would never stop scratching until he made big sores all over his head. I washed the scalp in warm water and soap, but this only made it worse, the red spots growing larger until they covered the whole scalp coming down the forehead. I put one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment. I washed his head in hot water as he could stand, using plenty of Cuticura Soap. This would take all the dry scales away leaving red spots. After rubbing the hair dry I applied the Cuticura Ointment on the scalp and this would stop the itching at once. After two weeks' treatment he was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. O. L. Eklund, Dec. 7, 1911. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

Prince Ellwood and his company opened in "The Cowboy and the Duke" Tuesday afternoon owing to the rain Monday evening. Those who witnessed the performance were more than pleased, judging from the laughter and applause. The climax of each act brings a surprise and gives the audience something to think about until the finish of the performance.

The play gives Mr. Ellwood an opportunity to show his versatility, as he is equally good as David Poulis, the tenderfoot and lover, as he was in the laugh-provoking Tommy Treeters of last week. Miss Blodgett, as Maryland Stanhope, added more friends to her list, and it would be hard to find a better Maryland. Mr. Santos as Bud Fisher, the Cowboy, was excellent.

The burlesque Romeo and Juliet scene by Mr. Martell and Miss Huntington in the last act, was very funny, and they both deserve credit for the way they handled the scene. The other members of the company were at their best and altogether it was a very pleasing and amusing performance. Business at the theatre is improving, which shows the people of Lowell know and appreciate a good show.

THEATRE VOYONS

"The Shepherd's Flute" is one of the most beautiful plays ever seen on the screen. Not only is it photographed amid most beautiful surroundings, but its story is one of the sweetest ever told. The leading roles are played by Miss Ormi Hawley and John Halliday, two of the most pleasing of the Lubin stars. There are two comedies, "Willie Becomes an Artist," and "A Would-be Striver."

BOY SCOUTS TO WALK TO LAKE WINNEPESAUKEE

Sixteen young men, members of the boys' club of the Lawrence Street Methodist church and the Pawtucket Congregational church, are to start next Monday from Lowell and walk to Alton Bay. The trip will take at the most four days and probably will be done in three days. Rev. J. T. Ullom of the Lawrence Street church will have charge of the boys from his church, and Mr. T. R. Williams of the Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the Pawtucket boys. A wagon will accompany them on their trip, which will contain the suitcases and commissary supplies. The Lawrence street boys will leave at 5 o'clock Monday morning, and the Pawtucket boys will leave at 6 o'clock. The greater part of the walking will be done in the early morning and late afternoon, and they will plan to rest during the warmer part of the day. The main object of the trip is to give the boys some idea of camping out and roughing it. The first night will be spent at Lake Massabesic, near Manchester, which will make the distance that they cover during the day equal to the distance from Boston to Lowell. The distance of the entire trip will be over one hundred and twenty miles.

On arriving at Alton Bay they will remain about four days and rest up for the return trip. During this time a trip around Lake Winnepesaukee will be made. The route that the boys will take will be to leave Lowell by way of Mammoth road and they will then pass through the towns of Pelham, North Pelham, W. Windham, Derry, North Londonderry, Manchester, Martins Station, Hooksett, Allenstown, Epsom, South Pittsfield, Pittsfield, Barnstead, Centre Barnstead, Gilmanston, Alton Station, and finally Alton Bay.

Those young men who will go on the trip are: James Allen, Albert Catherwood, Stewart Dickson, John Barry, George Barry, Fred Erickson, Jefferson Mansfield, Edward Sherman, Archie Grant, David Kingdown, Cady Curran, George Taylor, Charles Chadwick, Wilfred Book, Walter Gregg, Mr. Kingdown, Mr. T. R. Williams of the Y. M. C. A. and Rev. T. Ullom of the Lawrence Street church.

Y. M. C. A. CAMP

The boys at Camp Nahasett will long remember the season of 1912. The camp has now closed and all the good times are over. The camp housed over one hundred boys, seventy-seven being the largest number sheltered at one time. Not a boy who attended the camp this year has a complaint to make. Under the able and successful management of Mr. Thomas R. Williams everything has been a success. More sports and entertainments were given this season than ever before. There were track meets, boat races, swimming races, baseball games, camp fire talks, a mock trial, minstrel show and many other amusements. Camp fire talks were given by Rev. Mr. Kenngott, Rev. Mr. Carlton, Rev. Mr. McDonald and Dr. Yarnell. The final night in camp Rev. A. D. Wedek of this city, who is doing special work among the western Indians, gave a stereotypical lecture which was unusually fine. A minstrel show was given just before the camp closing which was said to be without a dull or uninteresting moment from the time the curtain rose until the grand finale. The Cambridge Y. M. C. A. hiked from North Billerica where they are camping for the summer and spent the night with the Lowell crowd. The following morning a baseball game was held, the Lowell fellows winning by the score of 6 to 1.

Irving T. Gumb is the editor in chief of the camp weekly which is called "The Skeeter," their motto being: "You Can't Saw Wood With a Hammer." This is a new little sheet, printed on the camp typewriter, which gives all the camp news, announcements, accounts of the various athletic contests, entertainments, jokes, knocks and editorials. The camp officers for this year were: Superintendent, T. R. Williams, assistant superintendent, Irving T. Gumb, cook, Carl Phelps; assistant cook, Ralph Davis; bugler, Raymond Slater;

WORCESTER WOMAN

WORCESTER, July 31.—Extending her motherly love to a stepson whom she had never seen, Mrs. Mary V. Moody named Fred Annon Moody, who disappeared 29 years ago with his own mother, a beneficiary under her will.

A petition for a receiver filed in the probate court yesterday sets forth that on Aug. 28, 1892, Fred A. Moody, then four years old, and his mother disappeared from Revere. Since that date the address of mother and son has not been known to Evaris A. Moody, now color bearer, Herbert Conant; librarian, Joseph Bratnard. The husband of the boy married again and Mrs. Mary V. Moody, the testatrix, was the second wife. Despite the fact that she had never known the boy, Mrs. Moody made him jointly with her own son, Harry S. Hager, a beneficiary under her will. The testament provided that a Mrs. Mary A. Collier should have life occupancy and the use of Mrs. Moody's property in Athol Centre and in Orange. The husband, too, is given a life interest in some of the property. The bulk of the estate, after the death of Mrs. Collier, is to be administered by Mr. Moody for the son of the testatrix, Harry S. Hager, and the missing stepson, Fred A. Moody. The court is asked to decree a receiver for the interest of the missing stepson, in order that the Athol Centre property may be sold outright to Mrs. Collier. Search has been made for the young man during the year since his stepmother died in West Derby, N. H., but the petition represents that the search has been useless.

LARGE BOW KITE USED IN EXPERIMENT

By Local Boy Who is Taking Up a Course of Electrical Engineering

The science of kite flying was exemplified in a capable manner this afternoon when Robert Kittredge, aged 16 years, who is taking a course in electrical engineering, sent a large bow kite from the tower of the state armory in Westford street.

The young man, who resides in Ralph street in the rear of the armory, has made a careful study of the wind currents and from the manner in which his kite acted this afternoon he was able to secure a good knowledge of the freaks of the air. He had some difficulty in raising the kite at the start and finally succeeded but subsequently had some bother in keeping it in the air. The kite swayed by the different winds would go from the east to the west, would shoot upward and then make straight and circular dives.

Kittredge was materially assisted by Capt. Walter R. Jeyes, armorer, who has taken an interest in young Kittredge's experiments.

BECKER IS SILENT IN THE TOMBS

Great Graft Game in New York
Police Department is Being Revealed

NEW YORK, July 31.—Every trail and lead is to be followed persistently, no matter where it ends, by Dist. Atty. Whitman, to learn to whom it is alleged, $2,400,000 graft money was actually distributed. "Dad Jack" Rose, whose confession put Police Lieutenant Becker behind the bars for the alleged murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, has told the public prosecutor that this large sum of money was obtained by police blackmail from gambling and disorderly houses and that Becker told him the money went to four police officials.

The public prosecutor has arranged to keep the grand jury in session all summer to investigate the relations between the gamblers and the police, which is, in the opinion of Whitman, a matter of more public importance than the Rosenthal case.

District Attorney Whitman proposes to break up the relations, said to exist between the gamblers and the police, and he has indicated that he will do so if he has to protect every man involved in the murder of Rosenthal, except those who fired the shots.

The information obtained from Jack Rose, who says he was Becker's collector from gambling houses, will be proved, says the district attorney.

All records of arrests of gamblers will be scrutinized to obtain evidence in the case and Whitman is in possession of a list of names of big and little gamblers in New York city.

Rose says that Becker took the list and determined how much money each gambler was to be assessed for the privilege of doing business unmolested. Some gamblers, Rose said, paid as high as $500 a month, while the little fellows got off with anywhere from $50 to $100 a month.

Meanwhile Becker, a prisoner in the Tombs, is saying nothing and there is no confirmation of the report that his defense will be that the three gamblers, Rose, Vallon and Webster, finding the case going against them, got together and framed the story that would involve Becker.

"Big Jack" Zelig, to whom Rose says he sent word to get the men to stay Rosenthal, will appear when wanted. His counsel has told the public prosecutor that Zelig would tell everything he knew. "Big Jack" is now out on $10,000 bail for carrying concealed weapons.

The alleged actual assassins of Rosenthal, Harry Horowitz, or "Gib the Blood," "Lefty Louis," and "Whitey Lewis," are still at large. "Dad Jack" is in custody.

With respect to the talk of immunity or lighter treatment for Becker in the event of his disclosing the operation of the "system," District Attorney Whitman said today:

"If it could be proved that Becker instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal, a crime of such serious nature committed, Becker could not be excused for any extenuating circumstances of graft that he might be able to produce. However, it must be presumed that he is innocent until he is proved guilty."

He figures that if "Bridge" Webster's little hole in the wall paid $125 a month for protection the greater establishments must have paid thousands and, taking the total number in the city, the figures become staggering.

Cornelius P. Cahalane, police inspector in charge of the first inspection district, took occasion today vehemently to deny that he was a party to any understanding between the police and gamblers, particularly in his district.

Speaking of Rose and Vallon, Cahalane said:

"They have very good reason to remember me. I drove Rose out of my district when he was located in Fourth street. Vallon, I raided four times inside of 11 months. He would move every time he was raided. The raids I made took place at four different localities. That's about all I can say, except to mention that the first inspection district is 50 per cent cleaner now than it was when I took command a short time ago, and if it is not I will resign."

The police department announced today that it was ready for the most searching investigation. While the heads of the department admitted that in the ramifications of the organization many individuals might be discovered, they declared that never before in its history had the department been better able to stand a thorough probing.

Although the gamblers who did the actual shooting of Rosenthal are still at large one more of those, directly or indirectly involved in the crime came within the reach of the authorities today. He is Samuel Schupp, an occupant of the gray car in which the murderers rode. Bernard H. Sandler, counsel for Schupp, appeared at the district attorney's office today and said that his client was willing to surrender provided he was accorded the treatment given Rose, Vallon and Webster. He was told that Schupp would be used as a witness if he could show that he was not an accessory to the shooting, and it is probable that Schupp will surrender by tomorrow.

Lieut. Becker maintains his silence in the Tombs, receiving no visitors, except his wife and counsel.

JOS. SURPRENANT

WILL BE ABLE TO LEAVE HOSPITAL SOON

The many friends of Mr. Joseph Surprenant who was severely injured in an automobile accident a few months ago, will be pleased to learn that he will soon leave the Lowell General hospital where he has been confined since the accident.

Mr. Surprenant is the only survivor of the automobile accident which occurred on the boulevard and in which Messrs. Alphonse Libesault and Adolphe Landry of this city as well as Mr. John B. Morin of Nashua lost their lives. Mr. Surprenant received severe injuries about the body and especially on one leg, which the doctors feared they would be forced to amputate in order to save his life. However, everything took a good turn and the leg was saved, and it was stated at the institution this afternoon, that it was thought Mr. Surprenant would be able to leave the hospital very soon.

Although his leg was saved, it is feared that the man will be forced to walk with the aid of crutches.

The many Lowell friends of George W. Colson, of North Billerica, who has been ill for the past eight months will be glad to learn that he is improving rapidly and that his physicians expect that he will be able to leave his bed in a few days.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL TO BORROW $97,000

$75,000 for Extension of Water Service

MONEY VOTED FOR COMFORT STATION

Alderman Barrett Talks
on Water System

The municipal council, at a meeting held this afternoon, voted to borrow $97,000, $75,000 for the improvement and extension of the water service and $22,000 for a comfort or convenience station. The house has been closed up for some time, as part of the family is in Europe, and Mr. Stevens himself is staying temporarily in the country. It appears from what can be learned that the burglar was very discriminating in what they should take. They gathered the silverware into one room, and there separated the solid silver from the plate, and took it with them. It is supposed, wrapped up in a sheet taken from one of the beds.

The meeting was called at 2:25 o'clock. The order tomorrow $22,000 for a comfort station in Paige street, near Bridge street, was read by the mayor after having remained the required time in the city clerk's office.

Alderman Barrett wanted to know what department would have control of the comfort station. He thought that question ought to be decided before the order is adopted and he moved that the commissioner of public safety be given charge of the construction of the station in conjunction with the board of health. It was so voted and the order was adopted.

The mayor then read an order to borrow $75,000 to improve and extend the water service in Lowell. This order, too, had remained in the city clerk's office for the required time, ten days.

Alderman Barrett said that the responsibility of about $50,000 of the $75,000 rests with him, because, he said, he believes in the construction of larger and better mains. There's about $25,000 of it for which he does not feel absolutely responsible because it will be used to complete work begun before he took office as commissioner.

He said it was only last week a situation presented itself that showed how necessary is an improvement in the water system. "In part," he said, "I am endeavoring to remedy that situation this year. It is my intention to provide a dual system, but it would be impossible for me to do it this year. It will be my first act next year, however, if I am still in charge of the water department, to build the dual system and I will ask money for that purpose."

What is meant by a dual system is an additional main from the reservoir to the down-town districts, having two mains instead of one.

"It does not appear to the ordinary observer at this time," said Mr. Barrett, "that we would ever have to desert our present system of well supply but there is a possibility that our wells may fail us in years to come."

"In that event we would have but two alternatives. We would have either to turn the water from the Merrimack river or get our supply from the Metropolitan Water Co. at Clinton."

"We are just about to connect new wells, however, about 200 in all, and I do not believe that our system of wells will ever fail us, but, in all events, we stand in need of the improvements that I recommend. Our water system should be improved year by year, for a city's water service is a precious thing."

The order was adopted unanimously. At a meeting of the council held yesterday afternoon, Alderman Barrett gave notice of reconsideration at the next meeting of the vote sustaining City Treasurer Stiles, but because of the absence of Ald. Cummings this afternoon, Mr. Cummings being the maker of the motion, requesting Mr. Stiles' resignation, Alderman Barrett asked permission of the council to allow the matter to go over to the next meeting and it was so agreed. It is expected that the matter to reconsider will not amount to anything more than to give opportunity for speech-making.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The quarterly meeting of District Council, No. 5, of Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique, will be held in Newburyport a week from Sunday, under the auspices of the council of the latter place. Inasmuch as considerable business concerning the general convention of the union which is to be held in Fall River in September, will be brought before the meeting, the session promises to be very interesting.

The program of the day will consist of a parade of the delegates and the local societies in Newburyport, followed by a solemn high mass at the French Catholic church at Newburyport. Immediately after the mass a shore dinner will be enjoyed at Hampton beach and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon the business meeting will be held in the Union hall.

There will be delegates present from Lowell, Lawrence, Haverhill, Amherst, Newburyport, Lynn, Salem, Danvers, Ipswich and Falmouth. The local delegates will be Council J. N. Jacques, Pierre A. Brunson and Adolphe Beauchard; Council Carillon, Joseph F. Montminy; Council Laval J. B. Bludeau.

BOLD BURGLARY IN BELVIDERE HOUSE

Residence of Tyler A. Stevens Entered and Robbed of Silverware and Other Valuables

It is reported that the house of Tyler A. Stevens on Park street was entered by burglars between Friday night and Monday morning and that a large quantity of solid silver was carried off. The house has been closed up for some time, as part of the family is in Europe, and Mr. Stevens himself is staying temporarily in the country. It appears from what can be learned that the burglars were very discriminating in what they should take. They gathered the silverware into one room, and there separated the solid silver from the plate, and took it with them. It is supposed, wrapped up in a sheet taken from one of the beds.

They reached the safe, but whether they tried to open it, is not determined. If they did so, they did not succeed. It is not known whether the robbery was committed during the night or in the daytime. It is surmised that the burglars found an entrance in the night and remained until daylight, so that the officers on the beat might not notice the light in the house, knowing that the family was absent.

The police are looking up the matter, but as yet no clue to the robbers has been secured. The police officers have been on guard at the house since the burglary was discovered. The police were of the opinion at first that the robbery was the work of boys, but on closer examination it was evident that boys could not make such a nice discrimination between solid silver and plate.

The gold head was twisted off a valuable cane and carried off. Various other articles were reported to have been taken.

WRECK DELAYS
LOWELL TRAINS

at Bridgewater, N. H.

A freight wreck at Bridgewater, N. H., that occurred early this morning was responsible for the delays in the arrival in Lowell of all the trains coming from the north that run over the White Mountains division. The wreck, as near as could be learned, occurred about 3 o'clock this morning, and though the wreck crew was sent to the scene as soon as possible, it was many hours before the wreckage was straightened out.

Bridgewater, where the wreck took place, is a small town outside of Plymouth, N. H., and it was rather difficult to receive information as to how the accident happened.

The Canadian Pacific train, which is due to arrive at the Lowell depot at 6:45 p. m., was not in at noon. As many Lowell people were expected to be on the train, there was considerable uneasiness at the depot on the part of those who were there waiting.

The train due at the depot at 11:00 was unable to continue on its way, having been stalled just about the wreck, and hence an extra train was made up. The latter train was "bunt" at Concord, N. H., and consisted of four coaches and the engine. This train ran under the 11:00 numbers and arrived at the depot in Lowell at 11:30.

Many Lowell people took the train for Boston, and it was learned that the "regular" will run through to its destination as soon as the wrecking crew finishes the job of placing the train back into position and repairing the rails.

The travelling on the steam railroad is very heavy, owing to the fact that many people are returning from their vacations. The New York train which arrived in Lowell from Boston at 11:25, was well filled up when it reached here this morning and many boarded it at the Middlesex street station. The latter train is one of the best on the road and has proven very profitable for the company as well as a great accommodation to the travelers.

The baggage is very heavy, and the men at the depot were kept on the go all day.

Grand Improvement

David Row, foreman of the plumbing crew, of the Boston and Maine railroad was today engaged with his crew of assistants in placing a double pipe rail on the stairs leading from Chelmsford street to the depot. The rail will serve as a baluster and is a great improvement, being especially beneficial to older people who have occasion to go to the depot through that entrance.

27 TEACHERS ELECTED BY THE SCHOOL BOARD

Two New Teachers for the High School—$3000 Voted for Industrial School

The school board held its regular June meeting last night and like the June meeting of last year's committee it was not called until nearly 11 o'clock. While the committee was late in getting together last night it managed to dispose of a big raft of business and the midnight bells were tolling when the last items of business were being acted upon.

The committee elected 27 permanent substitute teachers out of a total of 50 who passed the recent examination, at a salary of $200 a year each.

Miss Mary Joyce was elected a teacher of education and Miss Margaret A. Teague a teacher of physical culture, in the high school. Miss Westcott was elected to the position of principal of the industrial school.

A certificate of the first grade was voted to Patrick J. Reynolds, Holy Cross 1912, and a certificate of the second grade to Miss Hope Hearn, Madeline 1912.

Dr. Bagley, of the committee on teachers, presented the report recommending the election to the high school of Miss Joyce as teacher of education, and Miss Teague as teacher of physical culture. Mr. Rogers dissenting. Mr. Rogers stated that Miss Westcott failed of election at the last meeting, the reason being given that she was not a resident of Lowell. At the time of her election she was not, but he had hoped that she would reside here since that disability had been removed. She had faithfully performed the duties of her position, and he objected to the payment of two salaries of $200 each. He said he was opposed to the creation of two offices where only one existed.

Dr. Bagley said he had nothing to say against Miss Westcott, but he said that Principal Irish had told him that to teach education and physical culture was too much for one teacher. Dr. Bagley said that Miss Joyce and Miss Teague were both well qualified.

Committeeman McKenzie said that he, too, had gone over the matter with Principal Irish of the high school and had gathered facts and figures. "Pupils carrying less than four studies," said Mr. McKenzie, "have education for 45 minutes every other week, so infrequently that the teacher must often send for some of the pupils who have completely forgotten about the exercises. The classes are of such size that the individual pupil gets three minutes of actual practice in speaking. As there are 40 weeks in the year and education comes every three weeks, he gets in the whole year 60 minutes of actual practice of four hours during his course."

"At present the work is done by a teacher who is overburdened with callisthenics, having two battalions of girls to prepare for the annual drill, to say nothing of the special work done with the first year pupils. So you see both departments suffer because of the lack of instruction. And the result is that an important factor in the education of the pupils is largely neglected because, under the present arrangement it cannot receive the attention it deserves."

"The advantage of having a separate teacher of education, is that the pupils could be given instructions at least once a week. The school department could be renewed and made a helpful factor in this work. In view of these facts, therefore, I hope the board will relieve this condition by electing a teacher who is experienced and efficient in this work."

"No person is truly educated who cannot stand on his feet and express himself clearly and easily. There are times in every one's life when the ability to make himself heard means a great deal and when one has not that ability he feels the need of it badly. No man ever regretted that he possessed the ability, and certainly many a man regretted that he did not possess it. No man can be a leader without it. For a leader must have the power of expressing himself. The power of speech must be the gifts of the lawyer and the preacher if they are to be successful leaders in their chosen professions, and we know that many a lawyer and many a preacher would meet with more success in life if they could talk fluently and gracefully before an audience. We are not to limit the opportunity of the boy or girl for graceful speech and I sincerely hope that the motion will prevail."

Dr. O'Connor said he had nothing but words of praise for Miss Westcott and he knew that she was overworked. "It is generally conceded," he said, "that education is an important study and it requires more attention than it is receiving at the present time. I was the first to suggest the employment of a second teacher. I believed a second teacher was necessary and as taxpayer I am more than willing to pay my share of whatever additional expense is necessary to improve our schools."

The motion was carried, Mr. Rogers voting against.

Manual Training Teacher
John Dunn was elected teacher of manual training in place of Arthur W. Trubey. Mr. Trubey also failed of reelection at the June meeting, and he has since sent in his resignation, which was accepted at last night's meeting.

Dr. Wm. M. Collins was elected medical director of the high school to succeed Dr. Fordyce Coburn.

Miss Mary Martin, a temporary teacher in the high school, was elected a permanent teacher.

Dr. Bagley, for the committee on teachers, recommended that 27 young women on the list of candidates at the recent examination for teachers, be elected permanent substitutes, at a salary of $200 for the first year. He said the first intention of the committee was to elect 25, but it was found that three names were tied for the 25th place, and in justice to the candidates he thought 27 should be elected.

The examination papers reached Superintendent Whitcomb last night, having been mailed from Worcester yesterday. The packet was opened at a meeting of the committee on teachers—which is composed of all the members of the board—preceding the regular meeting of the full board, and the 27 ranking highest on the list were elected, the numbers and not the names of candidates being shown in the ranking.

The list of permanent substitutes elected, are as follows, in order according to their ranking, with the exception of the last three, who were tied for 25th place:

Bertha S. Keith, Rose C. Geary, Caroline A. Downey, Grace A. Stinson, Mollie M. Grayson, Gertrude Keyes, Elizabeth R. Connell, Marietta Ellab, O'Neil, Alice H. Lynch, Alice Gertrude Donohoe, Anna J. Cawley, A. Lillian Walsh, Frances C. Noonan, Anna Lillian McNabb, Henrietta L. Grady, Alice I. Joyce, Mary M. Cowell, Mary P. Carolla, Loretta Mary Kinsella, Ethel Helene Chaffoux, Helen Dwyer, Mary Josephine Leonard, Julia C. Sullivan, Mae Hogan, Caroline V. Cooke, Helen Rose Halloran, Agnes G. Phelps.

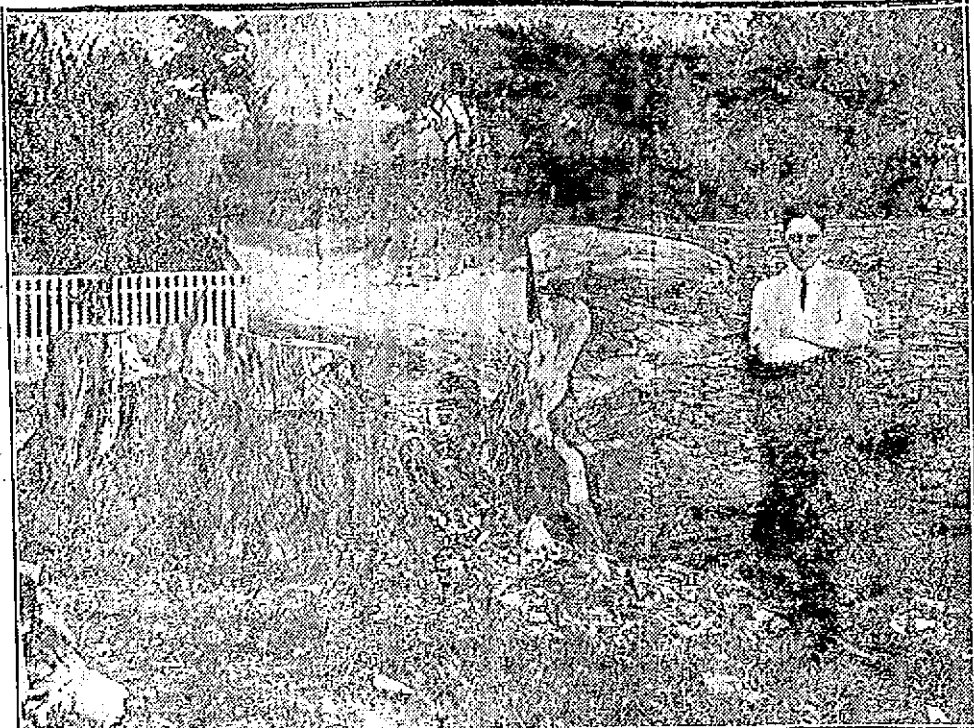

Mr. Rogers dissented from the report on account of the large number of permanent substitute teachers taken in on salary. He said that under the present method, instead of getting her experience outside of Lowell, the young teachers get it in the Lowell schools, at a cost of over $5000 to the city. Twenty-seven teachers, he believed, to be a grotesque number, to elect at this time. He believed that 10 teachers, in addition to the six permanent substitutes still remaining from last year's list, would be sufficient. If more were needed they could be elected at some later time.

Dr. O'Connor said that a great majority of the new teachers of the 27 proposed, were teachers of experience, and he believed the schools would be benefited by adding them to the teaching force. He said he would not feel like voting for any one of the three girls who were tied for 25th place. He said that the expense, everything considered, would not be greater than last year. Mr. Rogers has said, continued Dr. O'Connor, "that the names of only ten teachers were presented last year. That statement is not correct. The names of 24 teachers were presented. We will not require substitute teachers this year and instead of paying permanent teachers $2.50 a day for every school day as has been the rule they will receive $200 for the full year. I am not concerned, however, as to the actions of other committees. I am going to stand on my own feet and I want to feel that I am assisting in giving the best service possible."

Dr. Bagley thought that rather than see their daughters leave the city, parents would be glad to have them remain at home, and he did not believe that the citizens of Lowell would object to the plan for permanent substitutes.

Cost No Greater
Mr. Farrington figured that the cost of training these teachers would not be approximately greater than under the old system, for Lowell, he said, had always had to pay for training her teachers. He said the present system was better than the old system of either the training school or board of supervisors. The supervisors were allowed $200 a year each and, adding expenses and the pay of 12 teachers at $2.50 a day for every school day, Mr. Farrington said would carry the total beyond the amount to be paid extra teachers this year. "I believe," he said, "that 27 teachers will be needed, and

One of the largest, if not the very largest, elm tree in Lowell was felled in Baldwin street a day or two ago. The tree was struck by lightning about three years ago and since then it has been considered a menace to public safety. Its limbs, as large as ordinary

"I believe," he said, "that 27 teachers will be needed, and that this will be the most economical system ever adopted by the city. I do not believe in the training of our teachers in out-of-town places."

On the adoption of the report, Mr. Rogers alone voted no.

Supt. Whitcomb read the letter of resignation of Arthur W. Trubey, teacher of manual training in the high school, and it was accepted.

The superintendent read a letter from the advisory committee of the industrial school, recommending the selection of the old lodge at the corner of Fletcher and Powers streets, as a site for an industrial school building to be erected in the future. The recommendation was referred to the committee on industrial school.

The superintendent was given permission to order state blackboards for the Charles Street schoolhouse.

On the question of necessary sanitary provision in a school building, for which the lands and buildings department reports that it has no money, Dr. O'Connor said it would involve the expenditure of money by the school department, he should vote against it. He said the school department is the tenant and the lands and buildings department the owner, and it is up to the lands and buildings department to do the repairing. "The lands and buildings department has money for other things, but when it comes to doing anything for the school department, the lands and buildings department is broke."

It was finally referred to the committee on industrial school.

Mr. Rogers, under the head of new business, brought up the matter of Mr. Elmer T. Brennan, one of the three high school teachers who failed of reelection at the June meeting. He announced that Mr. Brennan is not a resident, as was alleged in the case of the other two teachers; and that on inquiry, he has not found that Mr. Brennan is not an efficient teacher. He, therefore, moved the election of Mr. Brennan. The motion was lost for lack of a second.

Field Day Program
Mr. Rogers then referred to the matter of the high school field day program, and called attention to the presence of the two young men, Loring I. Kew and Leonard Dursthorst, who had been waiting since 3 o'clock to be heard.

Dr. Bagley said that the head master of the high school was not present, as requested.

Mr. Rogers thought the two young men could be heard, and there being no objection, Mr. Kew stated the position of his committee.

He explained that on or about March 20, the commissioned officers of the high school regiment elected two of the senior officers and one junior, according to the custom followed in preceding years. The three were to go ahead with the program, and they started in on the work of soliciting "ads." After they had secured between $50 and $100 worth of advertising, they were informed that the chairman of the high school committee, Dr. O'Connor, had ordered the work to cease. They ceased work for a time, and were later informed that the school board had decided that they might go ahead, but that they were to receive no remuneration, unless granted by the board later. They went ahead and finished the work, and reported to Principal Irish, as directed.

Mr. Kew then read his itemized list of receipts and expenditures, and his estimate of the amount of work done by the three members of the committee. There were approximately 116 hours of work apiece, and the net proceeds of $12.51, now held by Principal Irish.

Dr. Bagley asked whether there was a record of the day the young men began work. Mr. Kew would not be positive whether it was the first or second Friday of March, and he said the estimate of record of actual time, but that they had all gone over it carefully in making a rough estimate, in the principal's office.

Mr. Rogers said that this matter has been pending for two months, and is a relatively small matter in dollars and cents. When the money is divided into thirds, it will amount to a fraction over 12 cents an hour, for the work done. The young men were elected upon the theory that the usual custom would be followed, and if there had been a loss, they would have had to make good out of their own pockets. He moved that the young men receive the money. Mr. McKenzie seconded, Dr. O'Connor opposed, and said he had been told by merchants of Lowell, that they understood that the proceeds of the programs were to go to the athletic association. He did not, however, understand he said that this was the case. The advertisement to the young men receiving money, because he did not think the Lowell high school was the place to promote graft.

Mr. Farrington approved of giving a part of the money, if it had been considered, to the athletic association, after remunerating the young men for their work; but as it was so small, he would vote to give it to the young men. Dr. O'Connor said he was astonished at the report, as he had been led to suppose that the sums from year to year ran up into the hundreds. He said that when he asked Mr. Irish how much was made in previous years, he had been given a different answer at each interview.

The motion was carried, Drs. Bagley and O'Connor voting no.

Dr. Bagley then gave notice of his recommendation at the next meeting of a course in Irish history in the high school.

Dr. Bagley moved that the recom-

Mr. McKenzie, chairman of the committee on industrial school, moved that the sum of $3000 be laid aside for the equipment of the industrial school, the money to be spent under the jurisdiction of the principal and the committee on supplies.

Mr. Rogers' amendment, to provide that the state authorities in the industrial school have a voice in the matter, inasmuch as they will not accept the school unless it is up to their requirements, was lost for want of a second, and the original motion prevailed by a unanimous vote.

A request from a representative of the Lowell guild, to establish a branch milk station in the Cheever street school building, was presented by Chairman Farrington. Mr. Watelle had referred the request to the board, as he is a tenant of the school by leave of the school board.

Mr. McKenzie asked whether Mr. Watelle pays rent, and was informed by Supt. Whitcomb that he is to pay $3 a month. The request for the use of the school for a milk station was granted.

The board voted to transfer Miss Mary P. Wholley from the Morrill street school to the Cabot street school as principal, and to transfer Miss Ida J. Clarke, principal of the Cabot street school, to the Morrill school.

SULLIVAN ISSUES CHALLENGE TO FRANK "PODGE" MURPHY

Father of Henry F. Sullivan Wants
to Meet Son's Challenger
for a Purse

Henry F. Sullivan wants it understood that he will not accept the challenge of "Podge" Murphy to a swimming match, inasmuch as he is an amateur and Mr. Murphy a professional. Sullivan has an ambition to capture more honors in the amateur ranks, and would not sacrifice his standing by a match with Murphy.

Henry recently swam to the Boston Light and contemplated making several other long swims, under the role of an amateur, and by participation in a race with a professional, whether for money or not, he would lose his standing.

Mr. Murphy issued a challenge to Young Sullivan last evening, and in fact has fired several at the young aquatic performer, and all had their effect on young Sullivan. He would like to swim Murphy, for he is confident that he would come out victorious, but as conditions are such that a match is impossible, the following may appeal to "Podge" as a good substitution. "Owing to the fact that Henry F. Sullivan cannot accept Mr. Frank Murphy's challenge to a swimming match without forfeiting his standing as a registered amateur, I, T. B. Sullivan, father of Henry F., will challenge Murphy to swim to Lawrence, the falls at South Broadway, for $100 a side, winner take all. I will meet Mr. Murphy or his representatives tomorrow night at 7 o'clock at The Sun office to arrange match. (Signed) T. B. Sullivan.

GRAY IS UNDER ARREST ON CHARGE OF MURDER

He Admits Identity But Denies
That He Killed the
Girl

BANGOR, July 31.—Sheriff White received a telephone message at midnight from Deputy Sheriff W. O. Estes of Brooks, saying that he had arrested a man who has been positively identified by a Carmel resident as J. Sherman Gray, wanted in connection with the murder of Naomi Mitchell at North Carmel last Wednesday night.

The arrested man admits his identity, acknowledges he was in the grocery store when the Mitchell girl came for supplies, but he denies killing her. Brooks is about 25 miles south of the scene of the murder.

T. Herbert White, sheriff of Penobscot county, yesterday sent out notices broadcast throughout eastern and northern Maine, offering a $200 reward for the capture of J. Sherman Gray of Carmel, wanted in connection with the murder of 14-year-old Naomi Mitchell on a lonely road in North Carmel.

The sheriff offers the money personally, as the county commissioners say there is no county funds available for such a purpose. Yesterday County Attorney George E. Thompson made a formal request to Governor Plafie to offer a reward under a state law, which makes such a provision. It is expected the governor will comply. The Bangor police put in nearly eight hours on the case last night and this morning, securing the territory from the Maine Central freight yards to Northern Maine Junction, including all the buildings at Maplewood park. This action followed reports that a man answering Gray's description called at the house of James R. Wade on Pleasant street and asked for something to eat. Although a search is still going on in the Kenduskeag neighborhood, nothing has come of it. A brief season of excitement was caused this morning by the report of the capture of Gray at South Lagrange, not far from Kenduskeag, by a crew of railroad section men. The man turned out to be a badly-scared tramp.

OLD HOME DAY OBSERVED IN CARLISLE

of Residents

The residents of Carlisle are today holding what is commonly known as Old Home day, an event which has been long looked for by the people of the village. On this day the residents of the town as well as the former residents meet in a general outing and enjoy the time of their lives. The affair is being held in the center of the village and a very large throng of people, including the children, is in attendance. At 10 o'clock this morning one of the prettiest parades ever seen in the village was held through the main street, the large body of marchers being preceded by a brass band. The paraders marched through the village and later directed their footsteps to the place selected by the committee for the outing. The remaining part of the forenoon was given to trade exhibits of all kinds including novelties, local hits, etc. A very appetizing dinner was served on the green at noon and the meal was an occasion at which many renewed old acquaintances. At the conclusion of the feast and during the entire afternoon a varied and long list of sports was carried out to the satisfaction of all present.

The committee responsible for the success of the affair was composed of the following: Rev. Granville Pierce, chairman; Miss Anna Hanson, secretary; Frank J. Biggs, Ralph Gerow, Albert W. Davis, Herbert P. Dutton, Winifred Lee, George E. Wilkins, Jas. H. Wilkins, Warren C. Duren, Mrs. Nettie O. Wilson, Charles A. Skelton, Gilbert Wilkins, Edmund L. French, James S. Anthony, Florence Anthony, Harold T. Chamberlain, Mrs. Mary T. Chamberlain and Mrs. Sarah E. Wilson.

EX-PRES. ELIOT FAVORS EQUAL IMMIGRATION FOR WOMEN

HONOLULU, July 31.—"Equal immigration for women" was the substance of a proposition broached here yesterday by Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard university. "If men immigrate the women of their race should come, too," he said. He advocated laws which would prevent the preponderance of more than five per cent of men over women in any race entering the country. Moral stamina and racial purity, he said, would be safeguarded by such regulation.

NOTORIOUS THIEF HAS BEEN CAUGHT

He Was Pursued For
Four Months

CALGARY, Alberta, July 31.—Pursued for four months through the wilds of northern Canada by members of the Northwest Mounted police, Will Ropp, said by the authorities to be the most notorious horse rustler and cattle thief in the western country, has been apprehended and is in the barracks here today awaiting trial. The chase covered nearly 2000 miles. Ropp, tired of being hunted, finally gave up and confessed in detail several hundred crimes, adding that he had probably committed as many more, details of which he has forgotten.

REVENUE CUTTER DISCOVERS DERELICT THAT MAY BE TUG NINA

NORFOLK, Va., July 31.—The revenue cutter Unalga has discovered near Winter Quarter a derelict that may prove to be the tug Nina, which foundered in a gale in January, 1910, while en route to New York from this port. Twenty-nine men went down with the tug and for two weeks the navy department had revenue cutters scouring the seas for the missing boat.

RESCUED MOTHER BOY SWAM TO ASSISTANCE OF DROWNING WOMAN

WEBSTER, July 31.—Mrs. Joseph H. Wall of Montreal, who is camping at Webster lake, narrowly escaped drowning yesterday afternoon. A canoe in which she was sailing overturned about 20 feet from the Point Breeze wharf. Mrs. Wall, who is unable to swim, screamed for help and attracted the attention of her 13-year-old son John, who was in the cottage. The boy did not go for help but instead plunged into the water, swam to his mother's side, and as she was sinking for the third time managed to keep her afloat. By this time other campers had been attracted by Mrs. Wall's screams and had rushed to the scene and the woman was saved. The incident is considered little short of a miracle, as Mrs. Wall weighs 190 pounds, while her son, the rescuer, scarcely tips the scales at 55. ACROSS FROM CITY HALL

A WARM GREETING
FOR OUR ATHLETESWho Are Returning From
Sweden Today

NEW YORK, July 31.—The advance guard of the army of American athletes returning from the Olympic games at Stockholm, where they carried the Stars and Stripes so often to victory, arrived here today on board the Red Star liner Vaderland.

Among the athletes were representatives of all branches of sport.

The liner docked about 9 o'clock, and as the sharp waiting to meet the athletes was a great crowd of relatives, friends and admirers.

The members of the team appeared to be in the best of trim.

They had had a splendid voyage, which, however, was not without its share of excitement as on the last voyage on board the Finland. The voyage was entirely relaxed on the way home and this was a welcome relief to all after their long period of strict training and exercise.

Not one of the Americans who returned today had a bad word to say for the arrangements at Stockholm, where everything possible was done for their comfort and convenience was carried out with thoroughness by the Swedes.

Hardly a trace of jealousy between the teams representing the various nations was noticed and the work of the judges in the stadium was praised by all who took part in the competitions.

Great admiration was expressed by both trainers and athletes for the excellent performance of A. S. Jackson, of England in the 1500 metres race, of the two Kolmanens of Finland, the long distance flyers and of the South African runners, K. K. McArthur and C. W. Gleshaw in the Marathon.

Jim Thorpe of the Carlisle Indian school, who proved himself the best all-round athlete at the games, came in for much praise.

The American shooters, according to some of the members of the team, owed considerable thanks to the excellence of their rifles, but Sergeant Ommundson of the English rifle team told them that if even the English had been armed with the American rifles they could not have beaten the American team.

Before the athletes landed each was given a card of invitation to the reception on Aug. 24, when the entire team, who will by that time have re-assembled, will parade through the city of New York.

To The "Iron Woman"

(The Universal Thermo-Cell Patent)

WHAT THE THERMO-CELL IS

The Thermo-cell is a dead air chamber permanently surrounding the top surface of each "Universal" Iron. A dead air space being a non-conductor of heat, the Thermo-cell insulates the entire upper surface of the Iron and prevents the radiation of its heat.

WHAT THIS MEANS

First: The Iron heats quicker because the heat absorbed from the stove is retained in the body of the Iron by the Thermo-cell. No other Iron has this feature.

Second: The Iron keeps hot longer because after the Iron is heated and in use, the protecting Thermo-cell prevents the heat escaping from the body of the Iron except through the ironing face.

SECRET WEDDING

REVEALED BY MESSAGE AD-DRESSED TO WOMAN

HAVERHILL, July 31.—The receipt of a message addressed to Mrs. John P. Clark yesterday revealed a marriage that had been kept a secret for more than a month.

Mr. Clark came to this city from Dover in 1910 to become the night telegraph operator. Early this year Miss Ruth Parker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Parker, accepted a position as clerk at the telegraph office and the friendship that was formed soon ripened into love, ending in their marriage.

Yesterday when a message was received for Mrs. Clark from Chelsea, the messenger boy refused to deliver it until she had admitted that she was married, and that her former night operator was her husband.

Explanations followed and it developed that the couple were married Sunday, June 23, when Mr. and Mrs. Clark went for a brief visit to Dover, N. H., but Mrs. Clark declines to tell where or by whom the marriage ceremony was performed. Mrs. Clark has resigned her position as clerk at the telegraph office and will leave this city shortly to live with her husband, who was appointed manager of the office in Chelsea six weeks ago.

STRIKERS WERE SHOT IN THE LONDON RIOTS

Many Others Were Injured by Being Struck With Sticks and Stones

LONDON, July 31.—Seven strikers were shot, one of them dying later, and 26 other men were seriously wounded by sticks and stones as the result of rioting at the Victoria and other docks in London today.

The chief encounter occurred at the Victoria docks, where 2000 of the laborers, who had been on strike for over three weeks, appeared at the docks in compliance with the manifesto of the dockworkers' federation ordering them to resume work. They found, however, that their places were occupied by non-unionist or "free" laborers who had been taken on during the strike who were determined to continue at work. They defied the men belonging to the union to elect them and a fight ensued. Bullets, brick and stones flew in all directions. The police, of whom only about a dozen were present, were taken by surprise and were powerless to suppress the disturbance. Another hot fight centered around the steamer City of Columbia, which was being loaded at one of the wharves. Unionist workmen tried to board her but were repelled by the non-unionists with revolvers, bottles and belaying pins. Many men were injured here, some of them with bullets. Large reserves of police were called up and finally succeeded in quelling the disturbance. Both the unionists and non-unionists accuse each other of starting the trouble.

under indictment for murder in New York. Until recently Paul Becker was actively engaged in the mining business, but at present he is interested in a prosperous horse-shoeing establishment on the north side.

A ring at the bell of the Becker cottage Monday evening brought Mrs. Becker to the door.

"How did you learn my address?" she said, smiling but shrinking back. "I have no statement to make about my former husband," she added. "I cannot say anything, especially in connection with the present matter."

No Mention of Charles

"Do you ever hear any news of Lieut. Becker?" was asked.

"My husband and I are on the best of terms with the sisters of the lieutenant and other members of his family. We exchange letters often. No reference is ever made, though, to Charles Becker in any of the letters. We get no news from him except what we read in the newspapers."

"We have been married since Aug. 16, 1908."

"My meeting with Charles Becker, my marriage and life with him are a closed incident."

"My home was with my parents in Kingston, Can. I met Charles Becker three years before we were married in New York city by Rev. Frank M. Goodchild, pastor of the 42nd street Baptist church. The marriage took place on April 28, 1908. We had one son, Harold, named after another brother of my husband, now dead. Harold is 12 years old. I have no children by my second marriage."

"Charles Becker was not a good husband. Long after I knew he was not keeping his marriage vows, when he had cast me aside to devote himself to other women, I stuck to him. I did this for our son Harold. I was a mother and that always came first."

"Then, too, I was brought up to shrink from divorce. You know a good woman will put up with a good deal from her husband before she will conceive of such an idea."

"I am positive now that Charles Becker never was true to me; but on the other hand he was man enough never to attempt to hide his own sins in false accusations against me. He would always defend me both during our married life, and afterward, under all circumstances."

"I became impossible for him, to longer conceal his attentions to other women. I finally was simply compelled to sue for divorce on March 3, 1909. The papers were filed and the case was held before a referee, Judge Henry Gildersleeve signed the decree of divorce on June 4, 1909, giving me an absolute divorce. My attorney was Robert J. Hibbard and Charles Becker was represented by Vanness & Vanness. Charles did not put up much of a fight, although the decree gave me $454 a year alimony, and this he paid until I was remarried."

Headstrong and Iron Willed

"Charles Becker was a quick tempered man, headstrong and with a will of iron."

"Whatever trouble he ever got into was through his associations with bad men. He belongs to good, respectable people and he was well brought up. He always was in some kind of hot water, but I believed he was too clever a man to be caught in anything serious."

"Charles Becker could get out of any sort of trouble. The department knew about my divorcing him and my reasons, but he was not dismissed from the force, although this should have been his punishment for his treatment of his wife and child. Other troubles he got into were investigated, but he managed to squirm out of them."

"We used to entertain friends of his at our home in New York, but they were mostly fellow members of the police. If he ever brought to our home any such men as gamblers I never knew of it. He was away from home much of the time, but I did not know where."

"I cannot express any opinion as to whether or not I believe he could be mixed up in this affair, for I do not know and have not seen him for so long."

ROOSEVELT MEN
TO HOLD "MOOSE" CONVENTION
IN MAINE

PORTLAND, Me., July 31.—Maine, famous as the home of the moose and other wild animals of the forest, will see her first "moose" convention to-night when six hundred adherents of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt from all sections of the state will assemble in the auditorium to choose 13 delegates to the national progressive convention to be held at Chicago on August fifth. The convention also will nominate six candidates for electors of president and vice president to be voted upon at the presidential election on Nov. 12. It also is expected the progressives will endorse the regular republican state ticket for the state election on Sept. 9.

The convention will be called to order by Frank Hill of this city who has been designated as secretary of the progressives in this state and Halbert P. Gardner of Patten, one of the delegates at large to the republican national convention will be introduced to act as temporary chairman and deliver the keynote speech. Later another address will be delivered by Jesse H. Libby of Mechanic Falls, another of the delegates to the recent republican national convention.

Surprised Many By Quick Work

ENTHUSIASTIC PEOPLE CONTINUE TO CROWD HEAD-QUARTERS OF NEW REMEDY.

Yesterday was a busy day at the Var-ne-sis headquarters in the Dows drug store, Merrimack and Central streets, many people coming from out-of-town to obtain this new remedy that is producing so many astonishing cures in Lowell. One lady, who came from out-of-town said:

"I want to get some of that Var-ne-sis for my rheumatism. It will run down, tired, nervous and can hardly eat anything without distress. Rheumatism seems to attack every joint in her body and I have been looking for Var-ne-sis ever since some friends of mine recommended it to me when I was laid up three years ago with the worst case of stomach trouble and pneumonia a human being could stand. Friends told me about it at that time and after taking the medicine only a few days my headache was gone, constipation and stomach got better immediately, and I forgot I ever had rheumatism. I have enjoyed perfect health every day since and have recommended it to friends with the same results."

"I am too well known to give my name," when asked for her address, "but," she continued, "I know a great number that this remedy has cured, and I think it is the greatest medicine ever discovered."

It is surprising to see the number of people returning to obtain more of the remedy to send to friends and relatives as far away as the West. Some of them say it is just the thing they have been looking for—something that will put their stomach in good shape and at the same time remove the poison from the blood where there is any rheumatism. The drug clerks are very enthusiastic about this new remedy, and claim it is astonishing to hear people come back after taking the remedy and say it has done wonders for them after everything else had failed.

It was stated that over one thousand in this city have added their names to the enthusiastic list of Var-ne-sis supporters.

The Var-ne-sis physician will continue his arrangements to meet the public at the Dows drug store every day from 10 in the morning to 8 at night.

THE TARIFF BILLS BACK TO SENATE

House Turned Down All Amendments

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The democratic house yesterday, despite opposition, forced three tariff measures back upon the senate. They were the wool and sugar tariff revision bills and excise tax bill.

All were sent back with none of the senate's amendments accepted. On the wool bill no conference was asked. The house left it flatly to the senate whether that branch desired to pursue the legislation further.

The senate last night was in a quandary as to the program it would adopt in further consideration of the tariff bills. The regular republicans were reported to be favorable to a plan whereby they would absent themselves from the chamber, thus giving the democrats a chance to pass the measures and send them along for the presidential veto. The republican "insurgents," however, opposed this plan and insisted that the differences, where they are reconcilable, be threshed out in conference.

Senate democrats, enjoying the republican disagreement, will seek to take advantage of it. Some concerted plan of action will probably be adopted today when the senate democrats caucus on the wool measure. It is admitted that the whole tariff program will be discussed.

The wool bill was the first taken up in the house yesterday. There was virtually no debate.

Motions by Mr. Payne of New York and Mr. Crumpacker of Indiana, to concur in the senate amendments were voted down by 159 to 78 and 172 to 82. The last-named vote automatically rejected the senate changes.

Mr. Underwood next called up the excise tax measure, which he described as unamended, "the greatest piece of remedial legislation for the benefit of the masses of the people that has been enacted in a quarter of a century." He charged the senate with having sought to kill the measure by tacking on as amendments the repeal of Canadian reciprocity and a provision for the continuation of the tariff board.

Minority Leader Mann took sharp exception to Mr. Underwood. He declared that Underwood was "quibbling."

The Canadian reciprocity amendment was lost, 127 to 107, while that providing for the tariff board met the same fate, 130 to 95.

On this measure Mr. Underwood asked that the senate be asked to concur with the house. Speaker Clark accordingly named as conferees for the house Representatives Underwood of Alabama, Hull of Tennessee, Palmer of Pennsylvania, Payne of New York and McCall of Massachusetts.

The house free sugar bill was reached last. As amended by the senate, the measure provided for a retention of 1.50 on sugar, a reduction of 30 cents a hundred pounds from the existing rate. It also, among other changes, abolished the Dutch standard.

Representative Payne defended the amended bill and warned the democrats that they were seeking to sign the death warrant of the best sugar industry in this country by taking off the duty.

The house voted for a conference, 144 to 84. The speaker then named as managers for the house in the conference Representatives Underwood, Harrison of New York, Kitchin of North Carolina, Payne of New York and McCall of Massachusetts.

MAY NAME FULL TICKETS
KANSAS CITY, July 31.—Discussion of putting complete congressional and county tickets in the field for the November election was scheduled to be taken up when the progressive state convention resumed its session today. The convention last night decided to put forward a state ticket.

GIRLS ON STRIKE

THEY DO NOT WANT MALE EMPLOYEES TO USE PROFANITY

NEW YORK, July 31.—Four hundred girls, members of the dressmakers' union, employed at a Brooklyn factory, are on strike today against the use of profanity by the foremen and other male employees of the shop. The strikers hope to bring about a series of walkouts in other factories to enforce the demand for a rule that foremen and others be instructed that no profanity or abusive language shall be used in the workrooms at any time no matter what the provocation.

APPEAL FOR FUNDS

TO PROVIDE WINNING TEAM FOR GREAT BRITAIN

NEW YORK, July 31.—That English athletic authorities, agast at the failure of the Britishers in the Olympic games are planning to make a tremendous effort to bring out a winning team for the next Olympiad is shown by the text of an appeal which is now being widely circulated in Great Britain. It is signed by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and says in part:

"Can we not find among our rich men some one who will make these games his hobby and be the financial father of the team? How could a man spend money better. Failing that we must all make an effort to secure ample funds for doing everything which money can do to put the British flag at the top in Berlin."

"I hope that a strong, influential appeal for funds will be made in the immediate future. If the public does not respond it will prove that there is no national interest in the games and that our case is serious."

ROOSEVELT ATTACKED BY REP. BARTHOLOTT

He Says Ex-President Went to Convention With Treachery in His Heart

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Rep. Bartholott, republican, of Missouri made an attack upon Col. Roosevelt in the house today in a speech defending President Taft's nomination. Col. Roosevelt, he said, had gone to Chicago "when he was no longer at heart a republican."

Mr. Bartholott continued:

"In the eyes of later events we know that Mr. Roosevelt never intended to abide by the decision of the convention except he himself would be the nominee, when he made up his mind to violate all American traditions of political decency and go to Chicago at that very moment he knew he was beaten but expected to save the day by personal appeals to the delegates through persuasion, promises, coercion and threats."

But he came with treachery in his heart and fully determined to bolt if things went against him. The cry of traitor was heard against him and the shameless exhibition 'Taleves' with which he shocked his audience on his entrance into Chicago was the battle cry of the new party."

"If the national convention had heeded the injunction 'Thou shalt steal except for me,' all would have been well, but its determination to do its work conscientiously brought all the prearranged plans of party treachery to full fruition. A new party was born but it is not bound to be still-born. Can a party live or ought it to live when its birthright is a lie?"

DEMOCRAT FROM SOUTH FIRE IN PROVIDENCE CAUSED $50,000 LOSS

May be Roosevelt's Running Mate

OSTER BAY, N. Y., July 31.—A movement is on foot within the national progressive party to name a democrat from the south as Col. Roosevelt's running mate. Col. Roosevelt said today, if an available man can be agreed upon. The colonel said that a number of the leaders of the new party had made this suggestion to him and that he favored the plan. He added that such a selection would emphasize the non-sectional character of the movement.

Col. Roosevelt made another attack today upon the republican party. He based upon the appeal to the United States supreme court from the ruling of the Kansas supreme court, which presented the list of candidates for presidential electors of the republican party in the primaries.

This is an effort by Mr. Taft's managers in Kansas, said the colonel, to use the supreme court in order to deny to the people of Kansas the right to a referendum under the Kansas laws as to what was done in the Chicago convention. Kansas is the only state in the union where such a referendum may be had at a legally conducted primary.

The Kansas people feel, Col. Roosevelt continued, in accordance with the formal protest made by Gov. Stubbs, that if the case is not decided by Thursday the whole primary may be invalidated, as the printers may be unable to print or the clerks legally to deliver the ballots for the primary on Aug. 6th if the decision is taken.

DIAMOND NOTES

Who said Hoodoo? Lawrence dropped two. Too bad.

Brooklin did the come back stunt yesterday, with Lawrence the victim. We thank you.

Magee did some star fielding, and he also pulled a fine bingle. We still like Jimmy, and so does Burkett. The latter would like to have the Lowell outfielders parading around in the garden for the Busters, but we need him.

The series between Lowell and New Bedford now stands 5 to 6 with the Whalers on the long end.

Pfeiffer pitched a remarkable game and had the visitors at his mercy all the while.

Wolfgang again played a magnificent game in center field. He accepted the two chances that came his way and also negotiated two hits.

Owing to the fact that Clemens is on the sick list, and the race is so close that Manager Gray does not like to take the chance of allowing Wolfgang to injure his arm, he has secured Fred McDonald, a former University of Vermont man to fill in. McDonald played with Halstead on the University team and is reputed to be a very fast man. He is a fine fielder and slicker, and will appear in the lineup today. It is expected that Clemens will be back in a few days, but in the event of the new man showing Clemens will be watching Wolfgang is too valuable a man in the box to play him in the field, but Lowell is very fortunate in having such a willing and capable man to fill in.

Lowell at Lynn today. Zeiser will do the pitching for Lowell. Lynn will come to Lowell tomorrow for a double header with the Grays, the first game to start at 2 o'clock. Wolfgang and Mayhew are the pitchers slated to work, and Harrington, the star twirler of the Terrers, will probably work in one of the games. Harrington has just been seen in action on the local grounds this season, and as he is going at a fast clip, Manager Terry may send him in.

That prediction by Manager Gray that Lowell would head the procession for August looks kind of good from the cold at the present time. Lowell winning yesterday, and Lawrence dropping two to Brockton makes Lowell just one game in the rear. The games of today and tomorrow will be closely watched.

WANTS BEDBUGS

MANK WILLING TO PAY FIVE CENTS EACH FOR THEM

WASHINGTON, July 31.—A man has been found who not only wants bedbugs but is willing to pay five cents each for them if they are delivered alive.

G. M. Zimmerman, superintendent of the United States agricultural experiment station at Vienna, Va., has hung out a sign reading:

"Will pay 5 cents for each bedbug up to 50 worth."

Mr. Zimmerman complains that he has been unable to buy all the bedbugs he desires. He puts them at work exterminating another insect which is destroying an orchard on the experimental farm.

The post office is raising a cry against "waterbugs," which are rapidly consuming the glue on postage stamps in many post offices. The use of poison is not allowed.

TO REDUCE SIZE OF CURRENCY

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The size of all United States currency and national bank notes probably will be reduced by Oct. 2 and their designs revolutionized by Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh for the sake of economy and convenience to the public and safety against counterfeiting. This decision practically has been reached by the secretary. It is proposed to make the dimensions six by two and a half inches. The paper money now in circulation measures 7.5 by 3.4 inches.

SEARCH FOR NEGRO

POSSE EXPECTS TO LOCATE HIM TODAY

CLARKSVILLE, Texas, July 31.—A posse of men today are searching for a negro, Leonard Potts, who within a week has killed two Texas officers. His interest was the murder of Sheriff Stowers of this city, whom he shot last night. It is said the man is expected to be a traffic four miles south-east of here. Fourteen negroes are in jail here. They are held on the suspicion that they know something about Potts' movements. Some of the imprisoned negroes are believed in danger of violence unless Potts is caught or their own innocence of attempts to aid the fugitive is quickly established.

TO REAFFIRM MONROE DOCTRINE

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Reaffirmation of the Monroe doctrine, that the powers of the world may understand the United States definitely disapproves any foreign military or naval bases or any intervention in the affairs of any American republic, was reaffirmed today by the foreign relations committee.

Consideration went over until tomorrow as a parliamentary formality but when the subject is taken up it is expected the senate will endorse the committee report, which, though directed at the recent Maginot canal treaty, is a general principle which will indicate the position of this government.

M'Arthur of South Africa, Winner of Olympic Marathon, May Visit America

McARTHUR ARRIVING AT THE STADIUM

NEW YORK, July 31.—Before he left Stockholm, Sweden, for his home in South Africa, K. K. McArthur, winner of the Olympic Marathon, stated that he intended to visit America next year to show his running ability on this side of the water. According to many experts, McArthur is one of the greatest of all long distance runners. He is anything but a Hayes-Dorando-Tenawima type of runner. He is 29 years of age, 6 feet tall and weighs 174 pounds. McArthur's career has suffered from bad luck. He went to Greece for a Marathon which was postponed on account of political troubles and afterward went to England to take part in one which was postponed on account of the death of King Edward. McArthur has never lost a race. When not competing in athletic events McArthur is a policeman in the Transvaal. When McArthur reached the stadium the entire assemblage arose and cheered him to the end of the journey, which was one lap on the stadium track. When he had finished a crowd of his supporters rushed up to him, crowned him with a floral wreath and carried him off the field.

CRUMBS OF BASEBALL

Cullied by "Sul" From Circuit Dope Sheets

With Van Dyke in shape again Burdett is now well fortified for the rush down the stretch.

That Worcester team has been doing some heavy clubbing in the last fortnight—Exchange. Others have too.

Though down in the race, New Bedford and Fall River have a comfortable way of turning on the best of 'em when it is least expected.

In the last eight games he played with Brockton, Second Baseman Howland made only one hit in 25 times at bat, an awful slump—Exchange. He'll come back.

Kennedy of Lawrence has the faculty of "laying" for batsmen down to perfection. At this, he is as good as any outfielder in the league.

Albie Moulton, formerly Lowell second baseman, is heading the batting order of the Memphis club of the Southern league and is playing a fine game in the field.

"You can take it from me," says Jack Noss, "that I am perfectly satisfied to play in New Bedford, and Brockton is the last town I would think of playing in."

Van Dyke got back into the box Saturday for the first time since he hurt a finger on New Bedford, July 2. He signalled his return by hitting brilliantly against Brockton and winning his game.

There is a noticeable tendency among the managers in the league to put less and less dependence on sacrifice hitting. "What's the good of sacrificing, anyway?" asks John O'Brien of Fall River. "It only brings one run, and the way my team is going we need 10 runs to win a game. It will be like a man running for Fall River in the future, with never a let up, if we make a cricket score."

We've ordered the pennant and engaged the band for opening day next season—Lowell Sun. Rather premature—Exchange. We don't think so.

Anderson of Brockton has won four out of five games he has pitched against Worcester this year.

Player's players will have to fight hard this week to keep in front. They tackle Brockton, Worcester, Lowell and Lynn.

Woodman needn't feel disheartened because Lowell got to his curves Saturday. The champs are wracking every pitcher on the circuit these days—Lynn Item.

There seems to be little chance of Worcester coping the pennant. Lowell, Lawrence and Lynn are playing consistent ball, while the home team is good and bad and in many cases unreliable—Worcester Post.

One fan said: "Well, when Rorty comes again in this city, will go to the game." Red certainly gets away with his job with less kicking on part of spectators and players alike than any umpire in the league—New Bedford Standard.

The Rochester club of the International League has made an offer to the Rochester for pitcher Upham. Rochester wants Upham for immediate delivery.

CUTS THE WORLD'S RECORD FOR FOUR-YEAR-OLD PACER

Braden Direct Winner at Cleveland in the Year's Fastest Race

CLEVELAND, O., July 31.—Braden Direct, 2034, just 4 years old, yesterday aroused 2000 race-goers at North Randall by lowering the world's record for a 4-year-old pacing colt when he won the second heat of the $2000 Forest City stake, 2:06 class.

Just 18 years ago at Sioux City, Ia., Online, driven against time, paced a mile in 2:04. The report that a 4-year-old had made that time found many doubters, and that the skeptical had some ground for views is indicated by the years this record weathered the storm of attack.

Yesterday, after finishing ninth in the first heat, this newest champion of the Brown Hat tribe raced past the fleet Ginger, the fast but erratic Don Pronto and the swift Brannan Baughman and shot under the wire a winner by a safe margin. He had moved up from sixth position to catch the Col. pacer, Brannan Baughman, 10 yards from the wire.

Few realized the significance of the time—2:03 1/2—until Starting Judge Frank Walker announced that a world's record had been made.

Owned by J. H. Elspass, Braden Direct is a strictly pacing-bred colt. He is unusual in many ways. He raced last year in the 3-year-old futurities, winning four, including a seven-heat race at Lexington. He has never been beaten in a race with horses of his age, although he was started three times last season against aged horses. He earned a record of 2:07 1/2 at Columbus.

Braden Direct did the last half in 1:01. The official time for the last quarter was 31 1/2 seconds. He came back in the third heat and won easily in 2:05 1/2. As Ginger won the first heat in 2:04 1/2, this makes the fastest race of the year.

Grand as was this race, horsemen wondered last night what would have happened had not tameness forced the withdrawal of the national California entrant, Jim Logan, who had been made the favorite. Jim Logan won at Detroit in 2:03 1/2 and on the strength of this performance the talent picked him to beat the Denver colt Jim Logan, $100; Brannan Baughman, $50; Don Pronto, $20; King Daphne, $20; Judge Ward, $10, and the field, $20.

Adlon, son of Asworthy, proved to have more stamina than any other of the nine well-bred youngsters in the 3-year-old sweepstakes. The first two heats went against him, but he came back strong and won the third. Only the best winners competed in this field, and in this Adlon outclassed his field. He won by 50 yards in 2:13 1/2.

Brighton B finishing second in a close finish with Graham Bellini.

Eve Cord, favorite in the 2:30 trot, celebrated her first victory in a professional race, when she defeated nine trotters in straight heats, distancing two of them.

In the final event of the day, the 2:01 pace, Sir R. driven by T. W. Murphy, won in straight heats with the aid of Major Brine. Coming down the stretch in the first heat of this race Major Brine was leading. Don Demore was on the outside and it did not look possible for Murphy to squeeze through at the pole. But he drove Sir R. into the knot and then the judges called. Major Brine pulled over, allowing Murphy to get through.

Sir R. won the heat in a head-and-head finish with Don Demore in 2:05 1/2. The judges cautioned Driver Hosson. Sir R. won on his merits in 2:04 1/2 in another close finish with Don Demore, Major Brine and Peter the Second finishing close up.

FOUND NOT GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Driver of Wagon Was Charged
With Causing Woman's Death
—Other Cases in Court

Morris Shapiro, a hawker and peddler, who ran into and knocked down Ellen Keenan, an elderly woman, at Tower's corner on the morning of July 6, and subsequently was placed under arrest on a charge of manslaughter, was found not guilty and discharged by Judge John J. Pickman in police court this morning.

Judge Frederic A. Fisher who presided over the inquest held in the court of second sessions exonerated Shapiro of blame, stating that there was no criminal negligence on the part of Shapiro and that the death of Mrs. Keenan was due to an accident.

Discharged on a Technicality
Harry Levy who conducts a second hand clothing store in Dutton street was brought before the court several days ago on a complaint charging him with keeping a second hand store without having a license. He admitted that he had no license, but entered a plea of not guilty and requested a continuance which was granted. Clerk John J. Flaherty of the license commission produced records which proved that the defendant had no license.

The court decided that the city ordinance which was passed in 1894 provided for the licensing of second-hand clothing dealers, but did not stipulate any penalty in the event of failure to secure a license. Judge Pickman stated that the proper thing to do was to have a new ordinance passed or have the present ordinance amended in order to agree with the statute passed by the legislature in 1902.

Assaulted Child
Zisze Ganelas was charged with assault and battery on Manuel Gonsalves, aged three years. Owing to the fact that the defendant is a Greek and the father of the boy is a Portuguese, it was necessary to use two interpreters. At the conclusion of the case Ganelas was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $1.

Ganelas has a small store at the corner of Central and Union streets and according to his testimony he has been bothered by boys who throw stones in the store and at the windows. Last Friday morning some person threw a stone at one of the windows in the store and broke it. He rushed out to get the boy and the little fellow started to run away and fell to the sidewalk. He said when he saw the boy fall he picked him up. Archie Tansey, a tinsmith for Pratt & Forrest, stated that when he was passing through the street he saw the defendant run out of the store and strike the boy, the latter falling to the street and sustaining a contusion on the forehead.

Blind Man Arrested
Harry Davis, a blind man who resides in Beverly, was arrested for drunkenness. He pleaded to be allowed to return to his home city but the court decided to send him to the state farm.

Drunken Offenders
Philippe Jallbert, who was under a suspended sentence of five months in jail, was arrested yesterday and when he appeared in court this morning the suspension was revoked.

Wilfred Fortin denied that he was guilty of drunkenness, but according to the testimony of the arresting officer the defendant was fighting drunk in Lakeview avenue shortly before 11 o'clock last night. A fine of $2 was imposed.

Edward Brady was sentenced to five months in jail and appealed. Richard J. Clark, Romeo Partell and John Carey were fined $6 each. There were seven first offenders, who were fined $2 each and two simple drunks were released.

LIST OF STOCKS

MADE AN IMPROVEMENT IN THE LAST HOUR

The Market Was Strong at the Close—St. Paul and Amalgamated Were the Features of the Trading—Better Tone to Some Railroad Stocks

NEW YORK, July 31.—The rise of two points in Canadian Pacific, with some strength in Steel and Northern Pacific, were the features of the stock market at today's opening. Changes otherwise were nominal, but mainly upward.

Promise of better prices held out at the opening was not fulfilled. Steel losing all its advance, while Union Pacific and Reading sold yesterday's close. Minneapolis, St. Paul, Sault Ste. Marie rose with Canadian Pacific and the Tobacco shares moved contrarily. Early dealings in stocks today were doubtless disappointing to that portion of the professional element which looked for some activity at better prices as a result of the steel statement. The market was no less stagnant than before, while Steel and other active issues were barely steady until just before noon, when demand was followed by a general rise.

Most of the representative stocks shared in the increased activity and upward movement at midday. Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Reading, Lehigh Valley, Steel and Great Northern advancing a point or better. The market closed strong. The list made further improvement in the last hour with an increase of operations. St. Paul and Amalgamated were the features with a better tone to some of the semi-active railroad stocks, including the Washes issues.

LAST NIGHT'S RAIN

CAUSED DAMAGE

Heavy Loss at Merrimack Clothing Co.

LOWELL AUTO SHOW ROOMS FLOODED

None of the Machines Were Damaged

A terrific rainstorm, accompanied by thunder, lightning, hail and wind, broke over Lowell last night and although it lasted but about half an hour it did considerable damage. Streets were gutted, cellars were flooded and many of the cars of the local division of the Bay Street Railway Co. were put out of business and it was late in the night before the cars were running on schedule time.

Considerable damage was done to the Associate building and also the Merrimack Clothing store as a result of the clogging of a drain pipe on the roof of the building.

Centralville and Belvidere received the brunt of the storm and many of the streets in those sections of the city, especially where there were hills, were badly gutted and considerable filling in and resurfacing will have to be done by the street department before they are returned to their former condition.

Considerable damage was also done by the storm in the suburban towns. Although there was a downpour of rain in the morning it cleared up before noon and looked as though the storm was over, but shortly after six o'clock at night the dark clouds began to move over the city and at 6:30 o'clock it was almost as dark as midnight, making it necessary to turn on the lights in the streets, stores and houses throughout the city.

At seven o'clock a strong wind started to blow, the thunder roared, the lightning flashed and the rain started to descend in torrents. Shortly afterwards the wind died down but the rain continued. The downpour continued for almost half an hour and did more damage for such a space of time than any storm that has occurred in this city for years.

In Centralville and Belvidere the rain rushed down the hills transforming the streets into miniature rivers and also washing off the top dressing of macadam and depositing the dirt at the foot of the hills, impeding electric car traffic.

On the suburban lines of the street railway company the principal trouble was due to the accumulation of sand on the rails and washouts, but many of the motors in the cars were burned out and other cars had to be sent out on the various lines to tow the crippled ones back to the power house.

men out late last night and early this morning removing the sand from many of the streets and refilling the washouts in the streets.

The residence of William Nolin on Primrose hill in Collingville was struck by lightning during the height of the storm and considerable damage was done. The bolt entered the house through the chimney, sending the bricks flying in all directions. It tore through the whole interior, knocking the plastering from the walls and starting a small fire which was quickly overcome. Mrs. Nolin was stunned by the crash, but was given prompt attention and recovered in a few hours, although she was in a very nervous condition. The house is only two years old and will require extensive repairs. Fred C. Church held the insurance on the house.

The clogging of a drain pipe on the roof of the Associate building caused the flooding of the floor of Associate hall and considerable damage to the contents of the store of the Merrimack Clothing Co. The plugging of the pipe caused the water to flow over into the light shaft and into the store on the ground floor.

William B. Ready, the well known tonsorial artist, who occupies rooms on the second floor, was the first person to discover the terrible fall of water through the light shaft.

The neighbors of the protective company in Warren street were called and they laid rubber blankets over the clothing and later opened up the drain which allowed the water to run off.

The damage by water in the stock of the Merrimack Clothing Co. will amount to several thousand dollars, but incidentally it means that good suits of clothes and other articles, which were only slightly damaged by the water, will be sold at a sacrifice.

JUDGE DILLON

TO STATE REASON FOR WITHDRAWAL FROM CAMPAIGN

COLUMBUS, O., July 31.—The Republican state central committee will meet this afternoon to act on the resignation of Judge Dillon as the nominee for governor. It is expected that the central committee will recess until some later date before a sub-nominee is selected.

In his formal resignation to the committee, Judge Dillon is expected to state the reason for his withdrawal from the campaign.

Should the Taffert supporters succeed in naming another nominee it is understood that they will expect him to take the stump for the president in this state this fall.

The Roosevelt supporters will attempt to place whoever is nominated on the new third party ticket and declare for the former president. Following the meeting of the central committee, J. C. Laylin and other supporters of the president will leave for Washington, where they will discuss the Ohio situation with the president.

Mr. Laylin is one of the members of the notification committee, which will notify the president tomorrow of his nomination.

LOWELL MAN

APPOINTED ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER OF ASSO. PRESS

PROVIDENCE, July 31.—Frederick Roy Martin, a former resident of Lowell, Mass., editor of the Providence Journal and formerly of Cambridge, Mass., has been appointed assistant general manager of the Associated Press. The news came as a surprise in newspaper circles here.

At two different periods Martin has filled the editor's chair of the Journal, counting each time from Boston, where he is well known as a newspaper man in newspaper circles here.

When ex-Senator Aldrich and his coterie secured control of the Journal here Martin was released and returned to Boston, only to be brought back at a big salary by the capitalists who now control the paper.

While Mr. Martin has had the social doors open to him here, and is engaged in clubs, such as the Hope club, it is the opinion of some of his friends that he has not been averse to a shift from Providence for some time.

TREACHERY OF JAPAN

Still the jealousy between the powers in the old world goes on apace. England is laying plans to head off any warlike movement on the part of Germany; but while engrossed with this idea, Japan begins to join the anti-British plotters. It might be expected that Japan would be the last power to form any friendly alliance with Russia; but, nevertheless, if we are to believe the opinions expressed by prominent Japanese publications, it appears that an alliance is about to be effected between Japan and Russia. The provisions of the agreement, it is said, are to include a definite arrangement as to the rights of either empire in Mongolia, the settlement of boundary lines and commercial interests that in the past have been a source of controversy between these two powers. Japan seems to have become suddenly embittered against England because of certain commercial discriminations by British merchants and bankers.

London has shown a willingness to advance large amounts to China but refuses to loan money to Japan. This and other instances are cited as a cause for the acute feeling of hostility towards England that is beginning to prevail in Japan. But the worst feature is the threat to join hands with Germany, the most deadly foe of British interests.

These tendencies on the part of Japan to fall in line with the enemies of England are set forth in the Japanese Magazine as follows:—

"If Britain should refuse to continue her alliance with us, all we could do would be to bow to the inevitable. In that case we should be forced to seek the alliance of Germany in addition to that of Russia. . . . German wealth and industry are gradually creeping upward to that of Great Britain and America, and the efficiency of the German army and navy is a model for the world. If the alliance with England should ever be abrogated, we might be very glad to shake hands with Germany." And then, with suspicious prescience: "Our war with Russia led us to know that country as we never knew it before, and, consequently, taught us a mutual respect for each other."

The wisest minds in both Japan and Russia never want to see the two countries locked in the arms of bloody conflict again. As long as wise statesmanship prevails in the two countries a Russo-Japanese alliance is not only possible, but might be eminently practicable and advisable."

Evidently Japan is bound to be a disturber on the international chess-board. She is thus plotting the most treacherous alliance against England, not only with England's worst enemy on the continent, but her greatest European rival at sea.

Is it any wonder then that England will turn to France as her chief European ally?

It is doubtless the dread of a great war with Germany or some other nation that causes England to make such an effort to conciliate Ireland and her various colonies with the hope that they may all prove loyal when the test shall come. At the present time it is not likely that any of them would fail to do its duty if England were in a conflict with Germany or any other power. This action on the part of Japan looking to an alliance with Russia and Germany, if carried would be a very serious menace to England as it would be greater than any she could bring up in opposition unless she had an alliance with the United States. Japan seems to be a very ambitious and at the same time a very aggressive power. She is the disturber of the Orient and even worse than Germany in stirring up international strife.

FINAL DECISION ON THAW

Perhaps after all we should felicitate ourselves that when as in the Thaw case, the electric chair is cheated by the influence of money, the same influence afterwards fails to secure the release of the murderer from an insane asylum on the plea that he is now sane and a fit man to be turned loose on society. It would be a somewhat compromising position in which to place a court to ask it to rule that a man is sane but a few years after he had escaped the death penalty on the ground of being morally irresponsible. It is to be hoped that Judge Keogh's clear and pointed decision will put an end to the efforts to secure his release. By this time Thaw would probably have been as well satisfied if he had allowed the law to take its course and paid the real penalty of his crime.

The best way to protect boys against accidental shooting is to prevent them having access to dangerous weapons. Seldom has a more flagrant instance of youthful foolishness been recorded than in the death of little Louis Dion of Lawrence, who, disbelieving the power of a revolver in the hands of another boy, said: "You can try it on me." The boy with the revolver did so with fatal effect. The accident will be deplored of course, but it is only one of perhaps 10,000 that would never have occurred if people would avoid placing dangerous weapons in the hands of children. The Dion boy was shot on "a dare" and others have been shot as a result of this and other incidents which could not have occurred but for the mistake of allowing children to play with dangerous firearms.

It was with poor grace that Senator Bailey censured President Taft for expressing an opinion as to the validity of Senator Lorimer's title to his seat. The senator waxed indignant at the thought that the president should express any opinion on a matter the decision of which rested with the senate. But the president spoke in behalf of public decency when he had a right so to speak. Bailey used all his efforts to sustain Lorimer, and in the opinion of many there is not much difference between the two men. If Bailey were as loyal to his party as he was to Lorimer he would not be despised as he is at the present time by all true democrats.

The rest of the world is watching closely the workings of the new national insurance law just put into effect in England and one of the many reform schemes of Chancellor Lloyd George. It goes farther than any law of the kind yet framed in any other country, the insurance against unemployment being unique. The question has been asked, how will the English people pay the expenses incurred by this and the old age pension law, but Chancellor George has laid the taxes where they will do the least harm, on the shoulders of the rich who in the past have escaped without paying their fair share of the taxes.

With Mr. Bryan following closely after him on all his speaking tours in the presidential campaign, Mr. Roosevelt may come to know something of how the big game of Africa felt when he was on their trail.—Providence Tribune.

The similitude is good as coming from a republican paper, and we might add that Bryan will not require such a cavalcade to help him bag the game or at least to recover some of his stolen policies.

HENRY GRADY, WHO IS APPEARING AT THE MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The closing scene in the one-act playlet, "The Revenge," presented at the Merrimack Square theatre this week, is one of the most thrilling scenes ever put on the stage, a scene in which the guilty wife and her lover meet with as terrible and as just a revenge at the hands of her husband as could possibly have been meted out to them. Henry Grady, as the wronged husband, was remarkably good and won enthusiastic applause. Hazel Duggan, as his wife, and Charles Stevens, as the artist, provide exceedingly able support and as a whole this playlet is one of the finest acted bits of drama ever given at this theatre.

Mae and Lillian Burns continue to please greatly in their dainty musical act, among the most enjoyable features of their act being the playing of "Trauer" on the cello and of many of the popular airs on the delightfully sweet Swiss bells. Smithy-Smith in his odd dances and clever songs also is making quite a hit with the audience. Alice Bagley in her illustrated songs, "Dixie Moon" and "That Hypnotic Man," two of her most successful songs, continues high in popular favor.

The photo-plays this week are just about the best ever seen at this theatre, two of them, "The Rapid City" and "The Talker," being just about the most laughable films ever produced.

LAKEVIEW DANCE HALL

The manager of the Lakeview dance hall has provided a fine program for his patrons this week. Added to the special selections on the piccolo and xylophone, which are given every night by Z. J. Bissonnette and Tom Peol, on Thursday evening, all who visit the hall will receive souvenirs. The latter are very pretty and as a number have been secured all are assured of receiving one of the gifts. On Friday evening a novelty number, known as the surprise waltz, will be given, and this is sure to be greatly enjoyed not only by the dancers but also those who visit the park to hear the music. The orchestra plays a concert program before the sessions afternoons and evenings, and many lovers of music frequent the park to hear the selections. The floor at the hall is better than ever and the crowds are increasing daily. At the fountain adjoining the dance hall all the best temperance drinks are served.

CANOBIE LAKE THEATRE

SCALP COVERED WITH WHITE SCALES

Itching Terribly. Hair Came Out. Terrible Lot of Dandruff. Scales Would Fall on Coat. Scratched Until Made Big Sores. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Him.

5 Brewer St., Newport, R. I.—"My husband had eczema for six months all this time taking medicine and using salve not doing him any good. The trouble grew worse. It started with red itching spots all over the scalp, covered with a thickness of white scales itching terribly. His hair came out, and he had a terrible lot of dandruff. The white scales could be peeled in his hair as they peeled off, and would fall down on his coat. He would never stop scratching until he made big sores all over his head."

"I washed the scalp in warm water and soap, but this only made it worse, the red spots growing larger until they covered the whole scalp, coming down the forehead. I got one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment. I washed his head in as hot water as he could stand, using plenty of Cuticura Soap. This would take all the dry scales away leaving red spots. After rubbing the hair dry I applied the Cuticura Ointment on the scalp and this would stop the itching at once. After two weeks' treatment he was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. O. L. Edmund, Dec. 7, 1911. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

Prince Ellwood and his company opened in "The Cowboy and the Dude," Tuesday afternoon owing to the rain Monday evening. Those who witnessed the performance, were more than pleased, judging from the laughter and applause. The climax of each act brings a surprise and gives the audience something to think about until the finish of the performance.

The play gives Mr. Ellwood an opportunity to show his versatility, as he is equally good as David Pouds, the tenderfoot and lover, as he was in the laugh-provoking Tommy Trappers of last week. Miss Eldridge, as Maryland Stanhope, added more friends to her list, and it would be hard to find a better Maryland. Mr. Santos as Bud Fisher, the Cowboy, was excellent.

The burlesque Romeo and Juliet scene by Mr. Martell and Miss Huntington in the last act, was very funny, and they both deserve credit for the way they handled the scene. The other members of the company were at their best and altogether, it was a very pleasing and amusing performance. Business at the theatre is improving, which shows the people of Lowell knew and appreciate a good show.

THEATRE VOYONS

"The Shepherd's Flute" is one of the most beautiful pictures ever seen on the screen. Not only is it photographed amid most beautiful surroundings, but its story is one of the sweetest ever told. ### BOY SCOUTS TO WALK TO LAKE WINNEPESAUKEE

Sixteen young men, members of the boys' club of the Lawrence Street Primitive Methodist church and the Paytucket Congregational church, and to start next Monday from Lowell and walk to Alton Bay. The trip will take about the most four days and probably will be done in three days. Rev. J. T. Wilton of the Lawrence Street church will have charge of the boys from his church, and Mr. T. R. Williams of the Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the Paytucketville boys. A wagon will accompany them on their trip, which will contain the suitcases and commissary supplies. The Lawrence street boys will leave at 5 o'clock Monday morning, and the Paytucketville boys will leave at 6 o'clock. The greater part of the walking will be done in the early morning and late afternoon, and they will plan to rest during the warmer part of the day. The main object of the trip is to give the boys some idea of camping out and roughing it.

The first night will be spent at Lake Massabesic, near Manchester, which will make the distance that they will be doing the day from Boston to Lowell. The distance of the entire trip will be over one hundred and twenty miles.

On arriving at Alton Bay they will remain about four days and rest up for the return trip. During this time a trip around Lake Winnebaukee will be made.

The route that the boys will take will be to leave Lowell by way of Hammoth road and they will then pass through the towns of Pelham, North Pelham, W. Windham, Derry, North Loudon, Derry, Manchester, Martins Station, Hooksett, Allenstown, Epsom, South Pittsfield, Pittsfield, Barnstead, Centre Barnstead, Gilmanston, Alton Station, and finally Alton Bay.

These young men who will go on the trip are: James Allen, Albert Catherwood, Stewart Jackson, John Barry, George Barry, Fred Erickson, Jefferson Mansfield, Edward Sheridan, Archie Grant, David Kinghorn, Cady Curran, George Taylor, Charles Chadwick, Wilfred Book, Walter Gregg, Mr. Kinghorn, Mr. T. R. Williams of the Y. M. C. A. and Rev. T. Wilton of the Lawrence Street church.

Y. M. C. A. CAMP

The boys at Camp Nabassett will long remember the season of 1912. The camp has now closed and all the good times are over. The camp housed over one hundred boys, seventy-seven being the largest number sheltered at one time. Not a boy who attended the camp this year has a complaint to make. Under the able and successful management of Mr. Thomas R. Williams everything has been a success. More sports and entertainments were given this season than ever before. There were track meets, boat races, swimming races, baseball games, camp fire talks, a mock trial, minstrel show and many other amusements. Camp fire talks were given by Rev. Mr. Kennelott, Rev. Mr. Carlson, Rev. Mr. McDonald and Mr. Farwell. The final night in camp Rev. A. P. Woods of this city, who is doing special work among the western Indians, gave a stereopticon lecture which was unusually fine. A minstrel show was given just before the camp closing which was said to be without a dull or uninteresting moment from the time the curtain rose until the grand finale. The Cambridge Y. M. C. A. hiked from North Billerica where they are camping for the summer and spent the night with the Lowell crowd. The following morning a baseball game was held, the Lowell fellows winning by the score of 6 to 4.

Irvine T. Gumb is the editor in chief of the camp weekly which is called "The Skeeter" their motto being: "You Can't Saw Wood With a Hammer." This is a newy little sheet, printed on the camp typewriter, which gives all the camp news, announcements, accounts of the various athletic contests, entertainments, jokes, knocks and editorials.

The camp officers for this year were: Superintendent, T. R. Williams, assistant superintendent, Irvine T. Gumb; cook, Carl Phelps; assistant cook, Ralph Davis; bugler, Raymond Slater;

WORCESTER WOMAN

WORCESTER, July 31.—Extending her motherly love to a stepson whom she had never seen, Mrs. Mary V. Moody named Fred Annon Moody, who disappeared 30 years ago with his own mother, a beneficiary under her will. A petition for a receiver filed in the probate court yesterday sets forth that on Aug. 28, 1882, Fred A. Moody, then four years old, and his mother disappeared from Worcester. Since that date the address of mother and son has not been known to Everts A. Moody, now of Brentwood, N. H., the husband and father.

The father of the boy married again and Mrs. Mary V. Moody, the testatrix, was the second wife. Despite the fact that she had never known the boy, Mrs. Moody made him jointly with her own son, Harry S. Hager, a beneficiary under her will.

The testament provided that a Mrs. Mary A. Collier should have life occupancy and the use of Mrs. Moody's property in Athol Centre and in Orange. The husband, too, is given a life interest in some of the property.

The bulk of the estate, after the death of Mrs. Collier, is to be administered by Mr. Moody for the son of the testatrix, Harry S. Hager, and the missing stepson, Fred A. Moody. The court is asked to decree a receiver for the interest of the missing stepson, in order that the Athol Centre property may be sold outright to Mrs. Collier.

Search has been made for the young man during the year since his stepmother died in West Derry, N. H., but the petition represents that the search has been useless.
